The Pittsburgh Gazette.

FRIDAY, JULY 13, 1866.

THE old spirit of pride which formerly animated the Southern heart seems rapidly to be dying out. In former days the haughty South Carolinian would not have deigned asking help from the "yankees" of Massachusetts. But things have changed. A few days ago the Boston Fire Department received a begging circular from the Palmetto Fire Company of Columbia, asking for contributions to enable them to replace their fire engine and house, destroyed during the war, on the occasion of Sherman's visit. Verily, pride has had a fall.

THE Houston Star, edited by a reconstructed rebel, says of the Southern States: "Coerced back into the Union, "so-called," by the might and power of overwhelming numbers." And concludes the same paragraph thus: "Texas to-day occupies a proud position on the side of the President, the Union and the Constitution." This is Johnsonism in the South.

A DETERMINED effort is being made in the Indiana (Pa.,) District to get up an independent ticket in opposition to the Union Republican nominees. It is designated, by the Indiana Messenger, a trick of Johnson-Cowan schemers which will receive no sanction among the loyal members of the party.

THE Greensburg Herald states that it knows its own politics equally as well as the editor of this journal. We do not object to the assertion, since it thus acknowledges the difficulty of ascertaining where it stands.

GENERAL NEWS.

—A case of Trichnia has occurred in New York.

—The parties who shamefully flogged a school girl in Cambridge, Mass., have been indicted by the grand jury.

—At Atlanta, Ga., the graves of thirty Union soldiers have been dug up, and their bones scattered over the ground.

—The New York Citizen promises a pen-portrait of Henry J. Raymond if it can keep him long enough in one attitude to get an unblurred picture.

—Portland was burned by the British in October, 1775. One hundred and thirty-six of the principal dwellings, its churches and public edifices were then destroyed.

—A New Haven editor lately wrote: "Is there no balm in Gilead?" and at the breakfast table, next morning, turned to his article, and was met by the query, "Is there no barn in Guilford?"

—All the German families in Portland, with three exceptions, were rendered houseless and homeless by the fire. They are a social people, and had concentrated in one part of the city.

—It is understood that Joshua Ward, the crack single sculisman of the Ward crew, intends to challenge Hamill, in case that celebrity won the race he was to row in England on the 5th of this month.

—The Government has presented the celebrated Loomis' battery of Michigan, the six field pieces, cassions, harnesses and all the pharaphernali of the battery, in consideration of their gallant services during the war.

—An editor, describing the effects of a squall upon a canal boat, says: "When the gale was at its highest point the unfortunate craft keeled to the larboard, and the Captain and another cask of whisky rolled overboard."

—The Hartford Press tells of a dog in that city who has lost his voice. When strangers pass he rushes out, goes through the motions with great vigor, bristles up, jumps about and wags his jaws, but not a sound comes forth.

—A London letter says: "Mrs. Ritchie, daughter of the late General Wadsworth, recently met the Prince of Wales at a party, and he was so fascinated by her beauty as to demand her for a partner in the dance twice in the evening."

—In the old Beesley mansion at Elizabeth, N. J., not many days ago, a partition was removed, bringing to light a sealed closet in which was a five gallon demijohn bearing the date 1701, and containing about two quarts of whisky.

—An employee of the American Express Company, at Chicago, has suddenly left for parts unknown, taking with him a woman of the town, and $275 of his employers' money, with which to pay traveling expenses. He leaves behind him a wife and eight children.

—The losses by fire thus far during the year 1866 have been enormous; and they exceed the aggregate losses for any previous year. The reported losses for 1866 amount to $44,286,000, whilst those for the entire year 1865 were $43,139,000, and no previous year reported an aggregate of over $30,000,000.

—An unfortunate Kentucky editor thus addresses his delinquent subscribers: "Friends, we are pennyless. Job's turkey was a millionaire compared with our present depressed treasury. To-day, if the price of salt was two cents a barrel, we could not buy enough to pickle a jay-bird."

—Horace Greeley finished the last page of his Record and concluding volume of his History of the American Conflict, at sundown on the eve preceding that of the "Glorious Fourth." He has still about three or four weeks labor on it, preparing the index, reading the proofs, and preparing the appendix.

—It is reported that a marked change in the Horse Shoe Falls, at Niagara, has occurred within a few days. Large portions of rock have given way in the center of the shoe, giving the Falls now more of a triangular appearance which is said to add to its beauty. It has been demonstrated that the Falls recede ten or twelve inches a year.

—Wm. H. Stone, formerly of Burlington, Vt., but more recently connected with a California Petroleum Company, committed suicide on the 2d inst., at Port Henry, N. Y. For several weeks previous to his death he had suffered much from religious melancholy, and when found in the ravine where he committed the fatal deed, a Bible was lying by his side.

—The "game of cabs" is announced as the last invention in European cities of young men with plenty of money, and a lack of brains or knowledge or disposition how to use it properly. Two players sit at a club window and watch the numbers of the cabbs that pass by, one betting that more even numbers will pass, and the other that the odd numbers will have the majority. A young duke recently lost $100,000 in this way by unfortunately betting on even numbers at Paris.

—Of our war poets the Citizen says: "Longfellow's few war-pieces have been mild, and in nothing like the beat of drums; Whittier, tremendous when slavery confronted him intact, has never grasped the vehement inspiration of battle; Holmes is too vagarious a gossip and utterer of smart philosophies to make steel feel his stanzas, or spurs ride to his allegories. A Pennsylvania poet, Mr. Boker, has written too much carelessly, and an Ohio poet, Mr. Read, too little carefully, to be representative men. The best of the war-poems have been written by new people, just as the best of the soldiers were new people."

—The New York Evening Post says that the prevailing sentiment at the recent celebration at Tammany Hall indicates the intention of the Sachems to accomplish the nomination of John T. Hoffman as the Democratic candidate for Governor. The impression is that Governor Fenton will be renominated, and that Mayor Hoffman will be able to secure the support of a sufficient number of "conservative Union men" to defeat him. Henry C. Murphy, of Brooklyn, however, is the most formidable candidate yet presented for the democratic nomination, and appears to have the strongest support in the northern and western parts of the State.

Extraordinary Developments
And a powerful mastery over disease and pain are daily being achieved by a remedy which seems to have combined in it all the virtues necessary to the complete eradication and total overthrow of every malady known to have its origin in a tainted condition of the blood, or in an obstructed or vitiated state of the fluids of the body. This remedy is "Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher." Whilst it secures for itself the gratitude of the infirm invalid, it at the same time challenges the admiration of all classes of the community. Impartial reason and common sense must draw from the extraordinary cures it has made, the conclusion that there is something in Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher, not to be found elsewhere; or in any other remedy. Let those who still doubt of its efficacy, tell us by what secret talisman the Blood Searcher has been able to cure what so many learned doctors have failed in. By the use of a few bottles it arouses, with its genial warmth, every latent energy, restores every dormant function, and sheds on every side, life, health, joy and beauty. Cancer—a disease whose cure is unknown to the healing art—is arrested in its progress and discharged from the blood under this wonderful remedy. Dyspepsia, that protean and distressing malady, is readily cured by a few bottles of Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher. The pale and wretched patient, shivering under the baneful influence of malarial and paludal poison, by its use, is soon restored to health and vigor. Scrofula and all its terrible brood, discharging acrid humours through a hundred avenues, is soon disarmed of its terrors, and its poison rendered innoxious, by this wonderful cleanser. A teaspoonful of this Blood Searcher, mixed with water, and drank at meal time, will render the diseases of this season of the year, perfectly harmless and of no effect. In fact, there is no chronic ailment, in which it will not do good, and no taint in the blood that may not be removed by this potent remedy.

Ladies of Delicate Constitution
And uncertain health are strenuously advised to throw aside the nauseous and useless preparations with which they are accustomed to drug themselves, and test the hygeian, body-and-mind-strengthening virtues of HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS. In all the complaints and disabilities arising from various causes, they will find this cheering, refreshing and invigorating preparation of extraordinary efficacy. Its regulating properties are wonderful, and as a remedy for the languor, nausea, tremors, convulsions, hysteria, &c., which often accompany the development of womanhood, it has no equal among the prescriptions of the faculty or advertised medicines. For the many distressing feelings which usher in and often follow the period of maternity, and also for the painful and dangerous symptoms which sometimes accompany "change of life," HOSTETTER'S BITTERS are earnestly recommended. No other restorative seems to suit so well the constitutions and the organizations of the feebler sex. In all cases of Female Debility, where there is a want of brisk vital action, the BITTERS produce a most important change—relieving local weakness, and re-establishing the general health.

FROM PHILADELPHIA.

Tacony Mills Destroyed—An Incendary Caught at Work.

PHILADELPHIA, July 12.—This afternoon a most disastrous fire broke out in Frankfort. Among the buildings consumed were Briggs' Printing and Dye works, which are a total loss. They were situated on the corner of Oxford and Saxony streets, and were one of the largest factories in the 23d ward, employing several hundred hands, and valued at $400,000. Five dwelling houses were also consumed, and the Trenton Railroad bridge over Frankford creek, situated near the Briggs mill, and built of wood, was entirely destroyed.

After the breaking out of the flames, a man was detected setting fire to another mill in the vicinity, which confirms the suspicion that the fire was the work of an incendary.

A general alarm throughout the city was ordered by Chief Engineer Lyle, not by ringing the state house bell, but through the boxes located in the different engine houses.

SECOND DISPATCH

Later accounts of the fire represent that the loss will be $200,000, of which 150,000 will fall on buildings and machinery, and $50,000 on stock. The mill was known as the Tacony Works of Aaron S. Phincott, and covered two and a half acres of ground, and employed three hundred hands. The bridge of the Trenton Railroad Company, close by, was slightly injures, not destroyed, as previously reported.

LATEST VIA LIVERPOOL, Saturday, June 30.—The following is the latest official Austrian telegram relating to the fighting on the 28th:

PARDUBITZ, June 28.—The Prussians, yesterday, were completely defeated by the Austrian forces under Gablentz, leaving behind one-third of their army killed and wounded. They withdrew to Prussian territory towards Glatz. After occupying Jicin yesterday the Prussians were attacked by the cavalry division of General Edelsheim, and were driven out of Jicin and repulsed towards Turnau. In consequence of this defeat the Prussians last night evacuated Melink, Dauba and Leipa, and withdrew in great haste to Meims. The Prussian losses by General Edelsheim's attack were enormous. The strategy operation of the Austrian army was completely successful. The junction of Prince Frederick Charles with the army of Silesia was prevented. The Austrian losses in the battles of the last three days are estimated at scarcely two thousand killed and wounded. The Prussian loss is at least equal.

The Hungarian Chambers have been prorogued for an indefinite period, on account of the war. The sitting closed with cheers for the King.

A royal decree calls out the reserves of the Portuguese army.

A large additional number of insurgents implicated in the recent military revolt, have been shot at Madrid.

Two newspaper offices of the Progressist and Democratic parties had been closed by Government.

Rio Janeiro advices of June 8, say the Allies have gained a fresh victory over the Paraguayans, who lost six thousand killed and wounded, six guns and four flags.

The London Times again indulges in some complimentary remarks upon the visit of the United States Monitor Miantonomah, to England, and says that in allowing this vessel to visit England at the present moment, the government of President Johnson has conferred a service, only secondary to that so frankly rendered, in the recent suppression of the miserable Fenian demonstration, on the shores of the Canadian lakes.

The weekly returns of the bank of France show a further increase in the cash on hand of 22,200,000 francs. Bourse was flat on the 28th, rates closing at 63 francs 2 centimes.

A Turin letter in the Paris Temps estimates the Italian loss at the battle of Custozza at 12,000.

An Austrian dispatch, dated at Vienna, June 28th, says that four thousand prisoners and fourteen guns were taken from the Italians. The forces under General Cialdina have abandoned their positions on the Po and are falling back on Bologna, with a view of subsequently effecting a junction with the King's army near the upper part of the river Po. The Austrians have re-descended the Stelvio and occupied Bormil, driving the Italians back to Tyrano. Three Austrian prisoners having been hung on trees by the Italians, the Archduke Albert wrote to the Italian Commander-in-chief to the effect that in the event of a repetition of this course a system of retaliation would be adopted.

Garibaldi was at Adal on the 28th of June.

The London News Letter says that a naval engagement had taken place on Lake Garda. The Austrian gunboats retreated without much fighting.

A dispatch from Ancona on June 27th says: This morning twelve men-of-war, comprising the Austrian fleet, appeared in sight of this port, but are now retiring. The station squadron is to follow and attack them. The Austrian fleet carries eight hundred and fifty-two guns and the Italian fleet carries eight hundred and eighty-two guns.

The reports of the battle fought in Bohemia on the 27th ult., are still conflicting. Both sides claim the victory.

Latest dispatches from Berlin insist that the Austrians were defeated, with a loss of from 3,000 to 4,000, and eight thousand taken prisoners, and the news had caused great rejoicing in the Prussian capital, but as far as could be ascertained, the Prussians, although victorious in the early part of the day, were finally defeated by the Austrians and forced to fall back.

The London Times sums up the Austrian and Prussian reports as follows: The Austrians driven back by a superior force at Nachod, had, at 3 p. m., been pursued by their foe as far as Skalitz, on the road to Jaramir. Yet, if we may believe the Austrian bulletin dated from Josefstadt that same afternoon at ten minutes to five, we find that the Prussians pushing forward from Nachod and Neustadt, in the morning, came into collision with the Austrian Army Corps at Skalitz and were repulsed after six hours fighting, with a loss, as a Vienna telegram of yesterday adds, of 15 Generals and many prisoners.

The Austrians, there is no doubt, had the best of it in the encounter, though the advantage they obtained may have been by no means decisive. Somewhat astonished at meeting with no opposition in their invasion of Saxony, the Prussians have been for the last week feeling their way at every point on the frontier of Bohemia and Austriansesia, until wearied with their efforts to fall in with their enemy, they pushed forward through no less than three of the mountain defiles, encamping on the plains of Bohemia. At Turnau, Trauten, and other places, they drove back the Austrian outposts, but as their columns advanced they found themselves in the presence of the army of Benedek, which massed behind Josephstadt and Pardubitz, had long been on the watch for them and was ready for a spring before they had time to draw up and deploy their forces in the open country. So far as it is possible to judge from the imperfect and somewhat conflicting reports we have received, it would be natural to infer that the onward march of the Prussian invasion has been checked for the present, and that a further advance into Bohemia will be found impracticable.

The London Times of the 30th says: If the Berlin news is reliable, the Prussians have achieved solid success.

The morning Post believes the rejoicings at Berlin are premature.

The army and navy Gazette remarks that the time has now come for Benedek to show whether or not he is a General.

Parliament again met on the 28th. The proceedings in the House of Lords were merely formal. In the House of Commons, Mr. Gladstone states that he had received a communication from Lord Derby, requesting an adjournment until the 5th of July, to give time for the formation of the new ministry, so that in the interval until that date, the House would only assemble to expedite some necessary business.

Mr. Bernal Osborne commented upon the extraordinary position of the country in being so long without a government in a time when affairs at home and abroad, were so unanimously complicated. He reproached the Cabinet for having resigned upon a matter of detail, while they could certainly have commanded a vote of confidence in the House.

Mr. Gladstone explained the position of the government and defended its course.

Attention was drawn to the threatening proceedings which were taking place in London, in consequence of the defeat of the Government, by the so-called working men. One speaker declared that London had for a time, on the previous evening been under mob law, while others contended that there was no reason for alarm, and that the out door meetings were only natural at such a time.

Sir George Grey, explained the police provisions to prevent mischief, should any be intended. Lord Elcho and Mr. Lowe, had been hooted by the crowds near the House of Commons, while the residence of Mr. Gladstone was cheered.

Fire at Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, July 12.—A fire broke out at 11 p. m. in the Academy of Music building, corner of Fourth and Home streets, occupied by Kelly & Sons' Minstrels, caused by the Janitor droping a coal oil lamp. It was totally destroyed. The audience had just left the building. Loss $25,000; insurance unknown.

Amherst College Commencement.

AMHERST, MASS., July 12.—The exercises of the Forty-fifth Commencement ocurred today. The honorary degree of Master of Arts was conferred on Rev. Swinton, Albert D. Richardson, of the New York Tribune, and Hon. Franklin J. Otterson, of the New York Times.

The First Gun Fired in the Rebellion.

CAIRO, July 12.—The cannon that fired the first shot in the rebellion at the steamer Star of the West in the entrance to Charleston harbor, January 19th, 1861, passed through here en route to Washington, in charge of four soldiers of the 15th regulars.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

WASHINGTON, July 12, 1866.

SENATE.

Mr. Pomeroy reported from the Committee on Public Lands, a bill to extend to the State of Mississippi, for seven years, the benefit of an act granting land for railroad purposes, and called for its immediate consideration.

Objection being made by Mr. Edmunds, it goes over.

The Tariff bill was received from the House.

Mr. Fessenden—I move to take up the bill just come from the House and that it be printed and referred to the Finance Committee.

Mr. Grimes—I move to amend that motion so that the bill be referred to the Finance Committee, with instructions to report on the second Monday in December.

Mr. Fessenden said if this bill is to be referred to the Committee for consideration, it is very important it should be done at once. I wish to submit one or two observations in connection with the motion I have made. We are now in the eighth month of a very long and arduous session, and the members of this body have been laboriously engaged during that long period. This tariff bill which affects the prosperity of the country and the interests of every [illegible] us at this period, and I undertake to say that the members of this body are not prepared to enter upon the consideration and discussion of such a subject as this, affecting the vital interests of the country as it does at this time, and I think a bill making such radical changes as this bill proposed to make, should be laid a sufficient length of time before the people in order that there may be some response from them as to what their judgment is respecting the merits of the proposition. Another reason why I think it should be postponed is, that we should give time to our Finance Committee, the men who have charge of our finances in the Treasury Department, and the people of the country themselves, to see what may be the effect of the Internal Revenue Law recently passed. I am convinced that that law will afford sufficient relief to all the industrial interests sought to be protected by the advocates of the bill now upon your table. I understand from a gentleman who has made a most thorough investigation, a gentleman in whose judgment I place the most implicit reliance, that under the provisions of the new tax bill, there will be relief to the industrial interests of Pennsylvania alone to the amount of from eighteen to twenty-five millions on the articles of coal, iron and steel. Another reason, Mr. President, which I desire that this bill should be postponed is, that we may know whether it will make the change some of its advocates claim it will effect in some sections of the country. We were told, as I see by some of the newspapers, for I was not present at the time, that this was a Northwestern measure. It may be, but we have not been thus far able to conceive it to be that kind of a measure. We want an opportunity to satisfy our constituents if it is going to be to their advantage that it is really going to operate in that way. At present we do not so regard it. I might refer the Senator (Mr. Wilson) to the vote in another body to which I have no right perhaps to allude, in which he will find that the New England Representatives voted solid for it. Of the fifty-two votes cast against it, forty were from the Northwest. I am not going to deny that there may be individuals in the Northwest, and there may be individual interests in the northwest that may conserve. They will be benefited by the passage of such a bill as this, but I deny that there is any very considerable portion of the northwest in favor of it at this time. It may be possible that after the due consideration and discussion of this measure, they may conclude it will be to their advantage to pass the bill, but I think it will be sometime before we shall be able to bring the people of the northwest up to the belief that it is to their advantage to increase the duty on steel thirty-three per cent. I have shown three reasons why this measure should go over till December. According to its provisions, it cannot go into effect before the first of August. I do not think the Committee on Finance can give it that consideration and investigation which it deserves, and be able to report it to us to have it acted on before the first of August. The postponement until December will be only four months. In the meantime, we can learn what the sentiments of the country is in regard to the measure.

Mr. Wade—I am entirely surprised by the motion of the Senator from Iowa. Now, sir, I do not think we have any right, because it is supposed we are overworked and have been in session a great while. I don't think we have any right to neglect the consideration of the best interests of the country. I don't believe any of us are so entirely overworked that we would shrink from needed legislation. No one can be more anxious than I am to get out of this place. I would like very well to go at large for a while, but I will never consent to desert my post so long as I think there is a material interest that requires investigation, action or labor. So I think that part of the argument ought not to apply. There are some great outside reasons why this bill ought not to be postponed for a moment. We know that foreign importations, under the present tariff bill are pouring into this country to such an extent that our exports have no proportion whatever to our imports; that this country is drained of all its gold and silver the moment it comes in, and with all the grain and provisions we have, we have been importing wheat from Europe into this country for the subsistence of our people. Something is therefore wrong about it, and I don't like to see this question spoken of as a sectional question, and if it is so, the northwest, to which I belong, is more interested than any other portion of the country. You are endeavoring to hew out channels by which you can transport your gross materials to a market. I am told that corn has been burned for fuel, and sold for ten cents a bushel. You are endeavoring to make channels for transporting it to market. That policy has been tried long enough, it is utterly absurb. The northwest will never prosper under any such state of things. Something is wrong. I know it is said eastern manufacturers grow rich out of their investments. I hope they do, though I don't know it. I hope the northwest will soon learn to do the same.

Mr. Wade continued his remarks, advocating the protective tariffs, and concluded with the hope that the tariff bill would be sent to the Finance Committee and immediately reported to the Senate.

The question of postponement was further discussed by Messrs. Fessenden, Henderson, Wilson, Sprague and Guthrie.

The question was then taken on amending Mr. Fessenden's motion, as proposed by Mr. Grimes, to instruct the Committee on Finance to report on the second Monday in December.

The yeas and nays were demanded and recorded with following result: Yeas—Brown, Davis, Doolittle, Foster, Grimes, Guthrie, Harris, Henderson, Hendricks, Johnson Kirkwood, Lane, Morgan, Nesmith, Norton, Pomeroy, Riddle, Saulsbury, Trumbull, Sumner, Willey, Williams and Wilson.

Nays—Anthony, Chandler, Clarke, Conness, Cowan, Cragin, Edmonds, Fessenden, Howard, Howe, Poland, Ramsey, Sherman, Sprague, Stewart, Vanwinkle, and Wade —seventeen.

Absent—Buckalew, Cresswell, Dixon, McDougall, Morrill, Nye, Wright and Yates—8.

The motion of Mr. Fessenden, as amended, was then adopted, and the bill was referred to the Committee on Finance, with instructions to report on the second Monday in December.

Mr. Powers reported with amendment, the bill to revive and continue in force the provisions of an act granting public lands in alternate sections in the State of Mississippi to aid in the construction of a railroad in said State, and for other purposes, approved August 11th, 1856.

Mr. Wade, from the Committee on Territories, reported the bill to regulate the selection of grand and petit jurors in the Territory of Utah, and for other purposes, with amendments. It provided in these amendments that in cases in which the United States is a party, the United States shall have the same right as as any other party to challenge jurors; that there shall be no military officer above the grade of Major General, and that all military officers must be appointed by the Governor; that any officer authorized to solemnize marriage may be punished by a fine of one to five hundred dollars for wilfully marrying parties, either of whom are disqualified to enter into the marriage contract. That some 20 to 40 named territorial laws and all others which interfered with the disposal of public lands of the United States are annulled. That the registry of marriages, births and deaths shall be kept open to the inspection of all persons, and that returns of the property of the Mormon church shall be duly made in various particulars named.

Other provisions are made looking to the direction of this spiritual hierachy to the ordinary status of a territory of the United States.

Mr. Wilson introduced a joint resolution to place at the disposal of the authorities of Portland, Maine, tents and hospital furniture, and clothing for the use of families rendered homeless by the late fire, which was passed.

Mr. Anthony, from the Committee on Printing, reported a resolution to print 20,000 copies of the minority report of the Committee on Reconstruction.

Mr. Sumner moved that the resolution of Mr. Trumbull declaring the Senate in receiving the report, did not commit itself to an endorsement of the right of a minority to make a report to be printed with the minority report.

Mr. Sumner's motion prevailed, and the resolution of Mr. Anthony was adopted.

Mr. Brown introduced a bill to authorize the construction of a submerged tubular bridge across the Mississippi, at St. Louis, which was referred to the Committee on Post Offices and Post Roads.

The legislative appropriation bill was received from the House, with disagreement to certain amendments. The Senate insisted in its amendment, and agreed to the Committee of Conference asked for by the House.

Mr. Howe called up the Niagara Ship Canal Bill, and it was taken up.

Mr. Howe moved to amend the 21st section, by requiring that the company shall have expended two millions of dollars, instead of $500,000, before receiving $200,000 in bonds from the Secretary of the Treasury, which was adopted.

Mr. Howe moved to amend by striking out the following provision in regard to rates of toll, "which shall not exceed the rates of tolls or charges imposed on vessels and property, passing through the Welland canal, in Canada West, in the year 1864," which was adopted.

Mr. Howe moved an amendment that twenty per cent. of all tolls, instead of ten per cent. as in the bill shall be paid into the treasury towards the payment of loans from the government, which was adopted.

Mr. Morgan moved to postpone the bill until the second Tuesday in December, and spoke in favor of his motion, which was further discussed in the affirmative by Messrs. Fessenden and Sherman, and in the negative by Messrs. Howe and Howard.

Without disposing of the bill, the Senate went into executive session and soon after adjourned.

HOUSE.

The House resumed the consideration of the Senate amendments to the Legislative, Executive and Judicial appropriation bill, when the recommendation of the Committee on Appropriations in regard to the amendment, was agreed to, and a Committee of Conference was asked. The question in reference to the printing of the majority and minority reports of the Reconstruction Committee came up.

Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, said he understood the matter was susceptible of an explanation, and if the motion to refer to a Select Committee was withdrawn, the Chairman of the Committee on Printing would explain the matter satisfactorily.

Mr. Le Blond thereupon withdrew the motion to refer to a Select Committee, expressing at the time his firm conviction that the failure to print the majority and minority reports together was an electioneering dodge, because the minority report was a complete refutation of the majority report.

Mr. Laflin, Chairman of the Committee on Printing, explained that the testimony taken by the Reconstruction Committee was handed in and ordered to be printed 25,000 extra copies, being ordered on the 13th of March, and that afterwards the report of the majority was handed in, and after being printed, was sent with the testimony to the binder, and that it was not for ten or eleven days afterwards that the minority report was handed in. The House then ordered the printing of 10,000 extra copies of these reports to be bound together, and that order was being carried out.

Mr. Le Blond inquired of the Chairman of the Committee on Printing if he could inform the House whether the [illegible] the majority report had been sent [illegible] printer before the minority report was received by the printer.

Mr. Laflin replied that he could not. After considerable discussion, Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, moved to lay the whole subject on the table. The motion was carried by 84 to 29.

Mr. Alley, from the Postoffice Committee, reported a bill for the better protection of International communication, which he said was rendered necessary by the passage of the telegraph bill yesterday. He moved the previous question. The bill provides that no lines of magnetic telegraph cable from foreign shores shall be landed, maintained or operated upon any coast or shore of the United States, without special permission of Congress.

Mr. Hall asked to be allowed to suggest a very serious objection to the bill.

Mr. Alley said he had presented the bill this morning to every member of the Committee but one, and they approved of it.

Mr. Hall made the point of order that the bill was not the report of the Committee, it never having been referred to the Committee nor considered by it.

The Speaker decided that although the point was a good one, it was made too late.

The point of order gave rise to considerable discussion. Finally Mr. Alley moved to recommit the bill to the Postoffice Committee.

Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, expressed his belief that the bill should pass, in order to supply an omission in the telegraph bill passed yesterday. He knew this question would arise, and that was why he wanted to have the bill amended.

Mr. Alley, turning round sharply on Mr. Washburne, said He (Washburne) was in favor of the telegraph bill passed yesterday, and had told him (Alley) so, but he (Washburne) had an ulterior object, which was to prevent the Post Office Committee from reporting other bills to which he (Washburne) was opposed.

Mr. Washburne declared the gentleman from Massachusetts (Alley) had no authority to make an assertion of that kind. He was in favor of the telegraph bill passed yesterday, if it could have been amended in the particular which the bill proposed to do.

After some further discussion, the bill was recommitted.

Mr. Alley then reported back, with amendments, the Senate bill authorizing the construction of certain bridges and to establish them as post roads. The Senate bill authorizes the construction of a railroad bridge across the Mississippi River at Quincy, Illinois, for railroad purposes. The amendments reported by the Committee authorize the construction of a railroad bridge across the Mississippi River between Prairie du Chien, Wisconsin, and North Macgregor, Iowa, and expressly reserves to Congress the right to remove all material obstructions to the navigation of the river caused by such bridges.

Mr. Allison argued against the policy of granting this special favor to particular roads, instead of having a general law on the subject. Mr Kasson said he had introduced a proposition and had it referred to the Postoffice Committee, looking to the enactment of such a general law, but he had yielded his views to those of the Committee for two reasons. Firstly, That the authority to build a bridge at Keokuk, which he had in view, was being attended to by the gentleman from that district, Mr. Wilson; and, secondly, because it might not be judicious for Congress to divest itself of all control of the matter of bridging the Mississippi.

Mr. Wilson, of Iowa, offered an amendment authorizing the construction of a railroad bridge across the Mississippi at Keokuk, which was agreed to.

Mr. Windom offered an amendment authorizing the construction of a railroad bridge across the Mississippi at Winona, and moved the previous question.

Mr. Cobb and Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, desired to debate the amendment, but they were prevented doing so.

The House, seconding the previous question, the amendment was agreed to by yeas 80, nays 31.

Without taking final action on the bill, the morning hour expired, and the bill went over until the morning hour on Saturday.

The House then resumed the contested election case of Koontz against Dawson, from the Twenty-first Congressional District of Pennsylvania. Finally, the matter went over until to-morrow.

Mr. Laflin, from the Committee on Printing, reported a resolution which was adopted, for the printing of 20,000 copies of the Internal Tax Law, as it shall stand after incorporating the provisions of the act recently passed, so that, as far as practicable, the provisions of the different laws on the same matter shall be printed in connection.

On motion of Mr. Rice, of Maine, the Senate joint resolution just received from that body, authorizing the President to place at the disposal of the authorities of Portland tents, camp and hospital furniture and clothing for the use of families rendered homeless by the late fire, was taken from the Speaker's table. Read three times and passed.

Mr. Garfield offered a resolution which was adopted, instructing the Secretary of War to furnish a report of the Union soldiers and Rebel soldiers who died during the war while held as prisoners of war.

At five minutes past five the House adjourned.

Another Cabinet Resignation.

PHILADELPHIA, July 12.—A special dispatch from Washington to the Bulletin, reports the resignation of Attorney General Speed.

River at Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, July 12.—River falling, with four feet two inches water in the channel. Weather clear.

Tariff Bill Postponed in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—The Senate has postponed the Tariff Bill till December.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Additional Local Matters on Third Page.

The Temperanceville Murder—Stein, the Perpetrator, Arrested.

Intelligence was received, yesterday morning, of the arrest of Stein, the man who killed Roberts, in Temperanceville, a few months since, Thomas F. Jones, special detective, connected with the Mayor's police of this city, telegraphing Mayor McCarthy, from Philadelphia, as follows:

"PHILADELPHIA, July 12, 1866.
I captured the murderer Stein last night, in the woods near Bergen, New Jersey, after a desperate resistance. I shall arrive with him on Philadelphia Express on Friday at noon."

To Mayor McCarthy, who spared neither pains nor funds to secure the arrest, this news must be extremely gratifying, and we congratulate him upon the success which has attended his efforts, through his agent, the "detective" above named, to whom, we have authority for saying, the credit of the arrest belongs. Stein, as stated, will be brought to the city to-day, when we shall be able to learn the particulars of his apprehension.

Oil Intelligence.

The Titusville Herald, in speaking of the late fire at Benninghoff Run, says: The scene of the conflagration is one of great desolation, but hundreds of men are at work putting up tanks, engine-houses, derricks, &c., in the utmost possible speed. The flowing wells are connected with the various tanks not burned, and the oil is run off in barrels. Harley & Co's pipes were working order and pumping oil from the Philadelphia well. This is the only large producing well on the run which was saved. The tanks had just been covered in with wooden tops and fire-proof cement on the day of the fire. The whole damage will probably be repaired in ten days. The new well of Briggs & Severance, on Church Run, has surpassed every expectation. Monday it flowed eighteen barrels of oil, continuously, the full size of the pipe. No reliable estimate can yet be made of its results, but the indications are most favorable of a large producing well.

The Herald's correspondent, writing from Tidioute, says: There are no flowing wells here, but some of the finest pumping wells in the oil regions, among which are the following: Hart well, 300 to 400 barrels; Dennis well, 200; Crab & Hamlin well, 150; Slocum well, 100; Tiltco, 75; Haines well, 150; Baker well, 150; No. 40, the property of Messrs. Neyhart & Pierce, 250; Thompson, 200; No. 12, Paine property, 100. All of which, except the "Slocum," have been struck within forty days. It is almost impossible to calculate the daily production of this place, from the fact that new wells are being struck constantly. The facilities for shipping oil from Tidioute cannot be excelled, the Allegheny river furnishing water privileges, and the Warren and Franklin Railroad steam privileges, a circumstance which a Titusville shipper has availed himself of, and is now building a commodious platform for that purpose.

Two new towns have recently started, one on the Henry farm property of the New York and Allegheny Company, and the other at the head of Dingley Run, on the Triumph property.

A Den Cleaned Out.—Alderman Strain's officers, Long and Wilmot, armed with the necessary warrant, proceeded to the residence of Sally Scanlon, in Pitt township, in the rear of Pennsylvania Hospital, yesterday, and arrested Mary White, Jane Smith, E. B. Childers, Sarah Knox, Emma Black, Mrs. Myers, Wm. Myers, Martin Lowry and Wm. Boyle, inmates of the house, which had been complained of by Jacob Glosser as the resort of lewd characters of both sexes. All the parties gave bail for a hearing, except Jane Smith, Emma Black, Sarah Knox and Enoch B. Childers were committed to jail in default.

Drowned.—A man named Reach was drowned in the Allegheny river, between Oil City and Reno, Monday forenoon. He was crossing the river in a skiff, which upset, precipitating him into the river, and he was drowned before aid could reach him.

Allegheny Councils.

Both branches of the Allegheny Councils held a regular meeting last night, at their Chambers, in City Building.

COMMON COUNCIL.—There were present Messrs. Brown, Campbell, Cunningham, Faulhauber, Hanna, Heckadorn, Inghram, Megraw, Miller, McNeil, McDonald, Reed, Riddle, Walter and President Benney.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The election certificate of the Judges in the Third ward, was read by the chair. It set forth that the election of A. H. English, Esq., to fill the unoccupied term of Mr. John Meyer. Mr. English being present, was sworn into office by Mayor Morrison, and took his seat.

Mr. Cunningham presented a petition from the citizens of Allegheny Avenue, of the Second ward, asking the Councils to take some action in regard to a matter of costs assessed upon them for improvements of that thoroughfare. It was stated the City Solicitor had failed to serve proper writs on the petitioners. Referred to the Finance Committee with power to act. S. C. concurred striking out "with power to act."

Mr. Cunningham presented a petition from [illegible] of the Second ward, asking that [illegible] the contemplated sewer be laid [illegible] Avenue to Fulton street, [illegible] Fulton to Ridge street, [illegible] to the First ward sewer. Referred to the Committee on Sewerage with power to act.

Mr. Hanna presented a petition from the residents of Church Avenue, in the Fourth ward, asking that a water pipe be laid on that thoroughfare from Federal to Sandusky street. Referred to the Water Committee with power to act. In S. C. concurred in, striking out "with power to act."

The report of Wharfmaster Hutchinson was read, and was as follows:

Collections for June..........	$ 300.00
Collections for all sources up to date..	1032.00
Total..........	$1332.00

The report was accepted and ordered to be filed.

The President read a report from the Committee upon Fire Engines, which covered a resolution authorizing new wheels for the Grant steamer. Carried.

The Committee also introduced a resolution providing for the purchase of two second class steam engines, hose carriages, &c., for use of the city. The resolution was laid on the table.

Mr. Hanna presented the report of the Market Committee for the month of June. The report contained the statement of receipts of

Duncan Dallas, Clerk of Markets......	$ 1062.35
Jno. S. Edgar, Diamond Scales..........	230.52
W. F. Anderson, 2d Ward Scales......	24.76

The report was accepted and ordered to be filed.

Mr. McNeil offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Water to rent or lease part of the Water Works lot to any person desiring it. Referred to the Committee on Water with power to act. Concurred in by Select Council striking out "with power to act."

Mr. Hanna offered the following resolution: Resolved, That the Controller and Treasurer be instructed to report to Councils whether the Trust Commissioners have ever paid into the Treasury the proceeds of the sale of stock of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, and whether they ever made a report of the condition of said trust, and if no report had been made, to ascertain the reason therefor.

Mr. McNeil moved that the resolution be laid on the table. Lost.

The resolution was then carried, by seven yeas to six nays.

An ordinance providing for the prompt payment of persons who may leave, or be discharged from the service of the city, at any time between the regular monthly pay days, was read and laid on the table.

Mr. Riddle offered an ordinance fixing the weight of each barrel of salt sold in the city at two hundred and eighty pounds, and providing for three cents per barrel as a fee to the Inspector for each barrel inspected by him. Read three times and passed. In Select Council laid on the table.

Mr. McDonald offered a resolution instructing the Street Commissioner to have the stone sewer cleared of all obstructions. Adopted.

Mr. McNeil offered a resolution, instructing the Committee on sewers to examine the work now being performed on the sewers constructing, if found not to be effective, to have the work stopped till a suitable person shall be appointed to superintend the work.

Mr. Megraw took strong grounds in favor of the resolution, and declared that the sewers now being constructed were sadly deficient and by no means a fair job of work. It was wrong to permit such important work to be neglected; it was a matter of much importance to persons who have to pay for the construction of the sewers that the work be performed in a far different manner than it is being done. After further animated discussion between several of the members, the resolution was adopted. The Select Branch non-concurred and C. C. adhered to their original action, and had a Committee of Conference appointed.

In all action not otherwise noted there was a mutual concurrence, and Council adjourned.

IN SELECT—Present: Messrs. Drum, Hockenstein, Irwin, Patterson, A. D. Smith, J. B. Smith, Wm. Smith, and President McBrier.

On motion of Mr. J. B. Smith, the reading of the minutes was dispensed with.

Mr. Drum presented a petition from the citizens of the First ward, setting forth that their cellars are filled with water after every heavy rain, and asking for an opening into the sewer on Marion avenue, near the railroad crossing. Referred to the Committee on Sewerage.

Mr. A. D. Smith presented a communication from Messrs. J. Heron Foster & Co., of the Dispatch, and Penniman, Reed & Co., of the Gazette, relative to extra advertising under their contract with the city.

The communication was accompanied with a statement from the Controller, Mr. Francis, in which he remarks that "the gentlemen alleged that their contract with the city contemplated the advertising of nothing more than the proceedings of Councils and the city ordinances. If this is the case, then the charges are reasonable. The advertising for the last six months has been more than treble that of any preceding six months." The whole matter was referred to the Committee on Printing.

Mr. J. B. Smith presented the report of the Street Committee, with resolutions—First, for the increase of the salary of the Street Commission from $900 to $1,000; second, instructing the Solicitor to prepare a bill for the construction of a sewer through Manchester; third, authorizing a warrant in favor of Mr. Allen for $1,116.38, in full of balance due him for constructing a sewer under Beaver and Federal streets. The first resolution was not adopted. The second and third resolutions were passed.

The Committee also submitted an ordinance relating to nuisances, and prescribing a penalty not less than five nor more than ten dollars, for placing any kind of dirt, rubbish or filth in the streets; for keeping a pig sty or slaughter house within the city limits; for keeping a stable in a filthy condition; for suffering garbage or filth of any kind to remain in front of any dwelling, shop or lot of ground; for suffering privies to become offensive, etc. It also prescribes that the oath of the Street Commissioner or his Assistant shall be sufficient to convict under this ordinance. The ordinance was read three times and passed.

The committee also presented an ordinance for grading and paving North Canal street. Laid over for one month.

Also, an ordinance providing for the grading and paving of Jackson street. Withdrawn.

Capt. Drum presented an ordinance increasing the width of the sidewalks on Central street to fifteen feet, by taking three feet from either side of the roadway. Adopted.

Mr. A. D. Smith presented a communication from the Controller, asking for authority to pay sundry bills, amounting in the aggregate to $7,425.75.

The report was accepted, and the bills authorized to be paid.

Captain Drum presented a report of the Water Committee, relative to the petition of certain manufacturers, asking a reduction of the rate charged for water. The Committee reported in favor of a reduction of the rate from fifteen cents per thousand gallons to twelve cents. The cost per thousand gallons to the city is nine and a half cents, and they consider that twelve cents per thousand gallons will raise sufficient revenue from that source. An ordinance accompanied the report, reducing the rate to twelve cents, but after discussion it was lost.

A resolution was adopted authorizing the Water Committee to extend water mains from Taylor avenue to Jackson street.

The Committee asked Councils for advice in regard to withholding any further supplies of water to parties residing outside the city limits, and presented a resolution to this effect. After discussion, the resolution was adopted.

Mr. Patterson presented a report of the Committee on Ordinances relative to weighing coal, and recommended that no action be taken until additional legislation be obtained. Also, an ordinance providing for the weighing of salt, which was adopted. C. C. non-concurred.

Capt. Drum presented a resolution instructing the Controller and Solicitor to take such steps as will compel the Commissioners having in trust the railroad indebtedness of the city to make a report and hand over their trust, in accordance with a resolution of Councils passed in October last.

After a warm discussion, in which the conduct of Mr. Marshall, one of the Commissioners, in refusing to make a report as required by a resolution of Councils, was severely censured, Mr. A. D. Smith offered an amendment appointing a committee of five, two from the Select and three from the Common Council, to wait upon the Commissioners and demand a report. The amendment was adopted. Common Council non-concurred, and Select Council receded and concurred in the action of the Common Council.

Duprez & Benedict's Minstrels at the Pittsburgh Theatre, were greeted last evening with another crowded house. The programme was materially changed, embracing many of the sweetest of popular melodies and mirth provoking burlesques and jokes. It is hardly necessary to repeat our already expressed high opinion of this unrivaled troupe. The more we see of them the firmer we become in our conviction that they are champions on representatives of minstrelsy. They have not their equals in America. Their engagement is rapidly drawing to a close and we advise all who have not yet visited the theatre, to do so at once, as such an opportunity of enjoyment is seldom met with.

A Huge Swindle.—Two swindlers, named Ells and Sanford, representing themselves as agents for "Blind Tom," announced a grand lottery scheme to take place in Wheeling on Wednesday night, 11th inst. Several thousand dollars' worth of tickets were sold, and a large audience assembled on the evening designated, when it was ascertained that Blind Tom had not arrived, and that the "agents" had departed for parts unknown. This is the hugest "sell" we have heard of lately.

Acquitted.—Thomas Carrigan who was arrested on a charge of false pretence, had a hearing before Alderman Donaldson, yesterday, when he was discharged and the prosecutor, James McClarran, ordered to pay the costs. Hugh Duffy, Esq., appeared for the plaintiff and J. Chas. Dicken for the defense.

Attempted Assassination.

On Wednesday morning last, about 6 o'clock, Mr. Wesley Ballard, a resident of the State of New York, was shot by a man named Gregg, in Perry township, near county line, north of Portersville. The ball took effect just above the hip bone, passed downward, and lodged in the region of the groin. The circumstances connected with this affair appear to be about as follows: Mr. Ballard was taking a couple of horses from this city to western New York, was riding one and leading the other; before reaching Portersville, on Tuesday evening, he overtook Gregg, who was walking in the same direction; he tendered Gregg the use of the horse to ride, which was accepted, and they rode on together until they reached Portersville, where both stopped over night. In the morning Mr. Ballard made an early start while it was cool, saw nothing of Gregg until he was on the road north of Portersville, he then tendered him the use of the odd horse again, which Gregg did not accept, preferring to walk. At the forks of the road leading to New Castle, Mr. Ballard took the New Castle road [illegible] inquiry and went across to the Harlansburg road, before reaching [illegible] Gregg sitting in the woods at a tree, when he arose and shot Mr. Ballard [illegible], with a revolver. He shot twice, but only one ball took effect. Mr. Ballard fell from his horse, the horses ran away, and the cries of the boy who had directed Mr. Ballard on the road, caused the assassin also to run. The neighborhood was aroused. Mr. Ballard was taken to Harlansburg, and placed in comfortable quarters at Mr. McBride's hotel, and physicians sent for to dress his wound. Gregg was pursued through the woods and open fields and was arrested by the people in the neighborhood, who took him before Mr. Ballard, and was recognized by him as the person who shot him. Gregg still had the revolver in his possession, containing four loads—two of the barrels were empty, which he had fired at Ballard. Gregg was lodged in the New Castle jail on Wednesday evening. Doctors John W. and R. Wallace dressed Ballard's wound and report him in a rather critical situation. There is no cause assigned for the attempted murder of Mr. Ballard; but the presumption is that Gregg thought he had money, or wanted to get possession of the horses.

Runaways Yesterday.

We are called upon to note three runaways having occurred yesterday:

Henry Watkins, farmer, residing in Ross township, was driving along Liberty street, in the forenoon, when his horse took fright and became uncontrollable. In his course the wagon to which he was attached was capsized, and Mr. Watkins thrown out with such violence as to badly fracture his left leg, also his hip-joint, and dislocate his knee. He was conveyed to a neighboring house and surgical attendance provided.

About noon a horse attached to a wagon took fright at the corner of Fifth and Grant street, ran down the steep grade of Fifth, and coming in contact with a lamp snapped it off like a pipestem. The horse finally brought up at the postoffice, where he was secured. The horse and wagon belonged to John Shorb, McDonald & Co., of Allegheny.

In the evening the horses attached to the Relief Fire Engine wagon, while standing unhitched and unattended on Liberty street, took fright and dashed away at frightful speed. The wagon was upset, and a little boy named Leo Craft thrown out. Fortunately he received no serious injury. The horses were caught and the wagon found not to be very materially damaged.

Alderman Strains' Court.

Mary Fleming, complained of by Mary M. Murphy, for surety of the peace, was discharged.

A warrant was issued for the arrest of Henry Miller, charged with assault and battery, on oath of John C. Lewis.

A warrant was also issued for the arrest of Jerome Weaver, who is alleged to have kicked H. H. Ro and down a stairway. The circumstance occurred in the Fifth ward.

Ellen McDonald was informed against by D. K. McIlhinny, who accused her of malicious mischief in tearing up the steps of his residence, on Fourth street, using a hatchet for the purpose. A warrant was issued for her arrest.

Sophie Grey and Ann Miller, colored, of "Hayti," had a war of words yesterday, and the former being out-talked seeks revenge in prosecuting her antagonist for surety of the peace. A warrant was issued on her prayer.

Henry Lalis asked that a warrant be issued for the arrest of John Welsh, to answer for making threats of bodily harm. His desire was complied with.

Alarm of Fire—Excitement.

At an early hour yesterday business men of Wood street were greatly alarmed at observing a volume of smoke issuing from the cellar of W. W. Bradshaw's house furnishing establishment, near Fifth street, and presently there was such a scene of activity as might be expected upon the apprehension that a serious fire was on the tapis. There was a rush into Bradshaw's cellar, and into other cellars, where smoke was also issuing. Boxes, straw and debris were tossed about, some smelt wood burning, but the pursuit of fire was in vain, none could be found. But where did the smoke come from? The conclusion was at last arrived at that it proceeded from a flue from above, and the trepidation subsided.

An Impostor.—A tall, fine looking young man, with a scar on his face, is victimizing the people between Erie and Buffalo, and will probably give this city a call. He represents himself as a Catholic priest, and calls himself Father Joseph or Father McGill. He is begging pecuniary assistance and has visited, according to his own account, all the larger cities of Canada and the United States. Our Catholic readers are warned to look out for him, as he is an impostor. He was expelled five years ago from the Society of Passionists Fathers, at Pittsburgh, for bad behavior, and has never been reinstated.

Charged with Perjury.—John Megraw, tobacconist, on Liberty street, and three of his employees, John White, T. J. Wallace, and J. P. Hornish, were before Commissioner Sproul, yesterday, charged with perjury on oath by George H. Keyser, U. S. Revenue Inspector. They were charged with having testified to false and fraudulent revenue returns, on the 4th ult. After a hearing the Commissioner discharged the accused, the evidence not warranting him in holding them to answer the charge.

Fair Continued.—The Festival, under the auspices of the Ladies of the Fourth United Presbyterian Church, was largely attended last evening. By general desire, the fair lady managers have consented to keep the Festival open to-night, when the usual good supper and attractions of mirth and music will be offered. It is held in the Fifth ward public School-house, and to all who desire spending an evening in a very pleasant manner it is just the place.

Paraded.—The puddlers of the Cambria Iron Works, Johnstown, are still out on a strike. They paraded the streets of that town a few days ago, with music and banners. It is said that they have been notified to quit the residences occupied by them, which are owned by the Iron Works, in order to make room for a fresh importation of puddlers to take their places. Trouble is brewing in that quarter.

Alderman Butler's Cases.—Henry Fitzgerald, residing on Washington street, in the Third ward, was arrested for surety, and held for a hearing, on complaint of Mary his wife.

A warrant was issued for the arrest of Jas. Dunn, residing in the Eighth ward, for assault and battery, on complaint of Patrick Kinsian, who deposed that the defendant hit him in the face with a brick.

Runaway.—Yesterday a horse attached to a lumber wagon, became affrighted and dashed down Fifth street at a terrible rate of speed. Fortunately, no person was run over, although the horse kept the pavement nearly all the way down the street. At the Custom House steps he stumbled and fell upon the pavement, and thus ended his lightning travels.

Shot Himself.—Deputy Sheriff Kinney, of Petroleum Centre, while jumping a fence in pursuit of a thief, on Saturday, accidentally discharged his revolver, the ball passing through the fleshy part of his right leg, causing a painful but not dangerous wound. Notwithstanding this mishap, he continued the chase and captured the fugitive.

Petroleum Centre.—An elegant brick building, forty feet square and two stories high, is being erected in Petroleum Centre, at the junction of Washington and Main streets. It will be used in part as a post office, and the other part by the owners, Messrs. J. H. Bissell & Co., for a banking house.

Cholera Bullets.—We observe any quantity of cholera bullets in the way of green apples upon the pea nut stands on the city side walks. Persons cannot be too cautious in indulging in this early fruit, which is forced in the market a month too early.

Commitment Lodged.—Alderman Lynch, yesterday, lodged a commitment against Patrick Kearney, to answer a charge of assault and battery, on complaint of William Laughrey. Kearney has been in jail for some time on other charges.

Heavy Coal Shipment.—There were four thousand, six hundred and eighty-one tons of coal shipped from Erie on Wednesday. This would make a train of two hundred and thirty-three cars. It is not an unusual day's business for the port of Erie.

New Cars.—That excellently arranged railroad, the Pennsylvania Central, has lately placed a number of beautiful, modern improved cars upon their track, for the accommodation of the traveling community.

Vegetables.—The market is unusually well supplied with vegetables. The country people seem hardly yet to realize that rebellion is no more, if we are to judge by the war rates charged for their produce.

Quiet.—The city is in an unusually quiet condition, the police magistrates transacting but little business. We can only account for this dull state of affairs by the excessively warm weather.

Very Pleasant.—Bellfield Sabbath School, near Oakland, held a delightful private picnic yesterday. All who attended enjoyed themselves in a splendid manner.

Ice.—Ice is very cheap and plenty this season. There is every probability that the supply will prove abundantly sufficient to last till next winter.

Mrs. Houseman Acquitted.—The trial of Mrs. Houseman, in the Court of Oyer and Terminer, of Fayette county, at Uniontown, for the murder of her husband, resulted in her acquittal. Thairwell, her paramour, who confessed his own guilt, refusing to testify against her. The verdict created considerable dissatisfaction.

Larceny.—William Spencer was before Alderman Lynch yesterday, charged with the larceny of a horse blanket, the property of Joshua Spinner, from the stable of the latter on Ross street. A hearing was had and the accused held to bail in the sum of $300 to answer at Court.

Foot Race.—A foot race is to come off at Pithole next Saturday. The parties are Cowley and Scotty, well known in the oil regions.

Snake Story.—A rattle-snake seven feet in length was killed on the Reno, Oil Creek and Pithole Railroad on Saturday last.

Inauguration.—The soldiers' monument of Sewickley was inaugurated with appropriate ceremonies yesterday.

The Common Pleas Court concluded the argument list yesterday, and adjourned until to-morrow.

DIED.

THE U. S. SENATORSHIP.

We have heretofore spoken of the early demand of the Western portion of the State to a division of the representation in the Senate, and the concession of it by the Eastern section.

If this right of representation was important to our predecessors, in that period of small development, how much more is it to us? They were but forty thousand. We are a million, with interests that are incalculable, and in many respects diverse from those of the East. These interests are such as to demand for us a voice in the Supreme Council of the nation. The broad mountain range that divides the State, and sheds its waters in the direction of the Atlantic slope, on the one hand, and of the Mississippi and the Lakes on the other, by interrupting our connections and furnishing different channels for our trade, has made us in effect two very distinct peoples in habits, thoughts and sentiments, as the votes cast by us and them at our State elections have frequently indicated. They are, indeed, so far removed from us as to be comparatively unknown to the people of the Western counties, whose business centers here, and who have no considerable relations of that sort with the other side. If they have either wants to gratify or interests to protect—as they certainly have, and large ones too—it will not suit them to make the journey to the Susquehanna or the Delaware, either to make them known or to engage for them the support and advocacy of a stranger Senator. They want a representative at home, who will be accessible at all times, and not only understand, but sympathize with them.

But, why should they be ignored—why treated in the distribution of places as if they had no rights and claims, and were not even to be consulted? If the Democratic party was in the ascendency in this State, they might have a sufficient apology for ignoring us, in the fact that it numbers so inconsiderable a vote in the Western Counties. Not so, however, with the Republicans, with an unbroken column of populous and powerful counties, including our own—the banner district of the Union, extending from the Virginia line to the shore of Lake Erie, the west is emphatically the seat of its power, as it was the cradle of its infancy, in this State. It has held the faith here from the beginning. It has upheld the standard of the party, and turned the scale in our favor again and again, when the Eastern Counties have failed to come up to the requirements of the occasion. It saved this State at the last Presidential election, as it has done on more than one occasion before. It has its rights and its power, and cannot be successfully put aside, until it is ready to confess, to its shame, that it has not the material within itself to make a Senator, or to dispute the place with the more exalted spirits offered to us from the other side of the mountains.

There has been no time certainly in the history of this government when something other than mere politicians or political managers—when the highest ability, with the most unflinching courage, and the most incorruptible integrity, even more imperatively required in the Senate of the United States than now, in the midst of the great struggle between the Executive and Legislative departments, whose issue is, perhaps, to determine the character of our institutions for ages to come. There has been no time either when the loyal sentiment of the State was so inadequately or unfaithfully represented. But is there any body here, or even beyond the Mountains, who will venture the assertion that we have not amongst ourselves—of our own growth, or training, or domestication—men who are in every respect the peers, in intellect, and culture and high moral qualities, not only of the candidates paraded as the special occupants of the field, but of any others that the East can single out from its whole roll of unquestionably able men? No body will say it. We think it will not be pretended that there is any dearth of talent here, or any inferiority on the part of western men, even though they may not have proved quite as obtrusive as some others. No abler statesmen have been given to the councils of the State or nation than those whom the west has from time to time contributed, and it would argue great degeneracy on our part to suppose that the section which has furnished such names as those of ROSS, and LACOCK, and WILKINS has nothing left to match CAMERON, and CURTIN, and FORNEY, or the eastern division, or has become so deficient in pride, or so insensible to its own interests, as to be ready to surrender, without a struggle, a right which has been so long settled, and so well approved by the established usages of the State. The people, unquestionably, will not consent to this. If the politicians, or any of them, are prepared for the sacrifice, they must find other apology than the opinion of the west.

GENERAL WM. H. KOONTZ has been nominated for Congress by the Republicans of Fulton county. At the Convention in Fulton county, Dr. S. E. Duffield was nominated for Senator by acclamation, and John T. Richards was nominated for the Legislature, Jacob Barnhard and Benjamin Speck for Associate Judges; J. Thompson Myers, for Prothonotary; Jas. G. Lyon, for Commissioner, and D. Shoemaker for Treasurer.

* * *

GEN. MOORHEAD fully vindicated himself in the House, a day or two since, of a wilful and malicious falsehood recently published, that he was interested in the coal traffic of Nova Scotia. He openly asserted that he was not directly or indirectly interested in anything of or pertaining to Nova Scotia. In this community the slander needed no refutation.

THE PROPOSED CLYMER-SOLDIERS' CONVENTION.

We noticed in the Post of July 10th, a call for a State Convention of honorably discharged officers, soldiers and seamen of Pennsylvania—to be held at Harrisburg on the 10th day of August. Who may be the prime movers in this affair, we know not and care as little. But it is a singular fact that a call for a convention, professedly, originated to represent such a large body of honorable and influential citizens of this Commonwealth, should have appended such a very large majority of signers, who are of little or no consideration either in military, political or social life. Its avowed object is to meet and adopt resolutions (to be endorsed by the so-thinking military) supporting HEISTER CLYMER, democratic candidate for Governor of this State. We have no objections to this call for a Convention. But why is it that none of our renowned military leaders, from this State—and we have many of them—have signed it? There is not the name of one Major General to the call, not one Brigadier General, and but five Brevets; but there are forty one sergeants and corporals and one hundred and eleven privates; whether even these have honorably served in the army we have not the records to show. We cast a hasty glance at the call and by reference to the Adjutant General's Report are able to inform the public, as to whether these men are properly to be called the fighting representatives of our grand old army. The following are some of the officers whose records we examined:

Captain T. McDonough, (marked Geary's old regiment) in service from July 4th, 1861, to November, 1861.

Lieutenant Alfred Robertson, (marked same) in service from July 28th, 1861, to February, 1862.

Col W. W. Corbet, in service from July to October, 1861—two months.

Captain R. C. Johnston, in service from October, 1861, to July, 1862—ten months.

Lieutenant Augustus F. Bartlow, resigned August 11th, 1861.

Captain David V. Feaster, in service from April, 1861, to October, 1862—resigned.

A. N. Light, went into the army in 1861 as assistant surgeon.

Captain W. W. Murray, mustered out of the service in 1862.

Colonel John B. Embiish, not on record, but commanded hundred day men.

Second Lieutenant N. D. Bennett, in service from November, 1862, to April, 1863—six months—resigned.

Major James B. Treadwel, (published Fre-well) in service from June, 1862, to September, 1862.

Major S. C. Simonton, discharged from the service in June, 1863, after serving seven months.

Lieutenant McLean Thorn, in service from August 29, 1862, to September, 1863—resigned.

Lieutenant Colonel R. McDermit, resigned in January, 1862—was not in the service one year.

Major R. E. Taylor, resigned in July, 1862—was in service ten months.

Adjutant W. H. Powers, in service from August, 1861, to July, 1862.

Captain W. Aughinbaugh, discharged from the service in July, 1862.

Major James Ellis, can't be found in reports, (must be a Revolutionary hero.)

Colonel Joseph Jack, drafted man.

Captain Lewis A. Johnston, in service from September, 1862, to September, 1863.

Lieutenant Archibald Douglas, in service from September, 1862, to January, 1863—three and a half months.

We are sorry we had not time to run through the whole list, but we think enough has been seen to show of what military material the Convention will be composed.

WAR ITEMS.

The Emperor of Austria has just adopted a rule introduced by France which recognized the advantages of it. He has authorized Marshal Benedek to name to superior grades, on the field of battle or in the course of the campaign, those officers and soldiers who shall have distinguished themselves, and to confer on them decorations and other honorary recompenses. His Majesty reserves to himself the ratification of the nominations made by the Marshal.

The King of Italy has taken with him to the camp M. Carlo Ademollo, a painter of battle pieces of great reputation. This artist has been authorized by His Majesty to wear the uniform of the staff of the National Guard.

Baireuth, the headquarters of the Bavarian army, is situated close to the left bank of the Main, and contains some 18,000 inhabitants; it has formed part of the Kingdom of Bavaria since 1810, previously it belonged to Prussia, who obtained possession of it in 1791. The French occupied it in 1806. In the chateau near the city may still be seen several works in marble executed by Princess Mary of Orleans, and among others Joan of Arc overthrowing an enemy.

General La Marmora has followed the example of Marshal Benedek, and also lately forbidden all his officers to hold any communication with the journals. He has also refused to allow any newspaper correspondents to remain at headquarters.

The Memorial Diplomatique says: "The German Press is in error in announcing that the Prussian troops have occupied the Chateau of Johannisberg, belonging to Prince de Metternich, and that Count de Bismarck, to annoy the Ambassador of Austria, had confiscated the renowned wines which the cellars of the castle contain. The Johannisberg occupied by the Prussian troops is a domain belonging to the Prince-Archbishop of Breslau, situated in Silesia; while the chateau of Prince de Metternich is on the bank of the Rhine, in the Duchy of Nassau."

The London Times says: "The Prussians have not been careless witnesses of the great struggle in America. The organization of their army shows that its administrators have eagerly noted all the results of modern science and advanced civilization which the contest between the Federals and Confederates called into the service of war. Orders and reports are no longer conveyed tardily by aides-de-camp or orderlies; they are flashed from corps to corps along the wires of the telegraph, for to each head-quarters a field telegraph division is attached, which as soon as head-quarters are established, connects the temporary bureau of the chief of the staff with the nearest permanent telegraph station."

POLITICAL.

—Mr. James W. Wall, of New Jersey, who earnestly and openly opposed from the outset, the war for the Union, now writes a public letter to Montgomery Blair, intended to convince that gentleman that, if he is right now, he must have been grievously wrong in 1864-5.

—The loyal Union men of North Carolina will hold a convention in Raleigh about the 1st of August, to nominate a candidate for Governor. Thomas Settle, of Wentworth, it is supposed, will be the nominee.

—The La Crosse Republican publishes an authoritative statement that General Washburne will not be a candidate for the United States Senate, and greatly desires the re-election of Senator Howe.

—The Democrats of the Ninth Illinois have determined to throw overboard their present representative in Congress—Lewis W. Ross.

—The Congressional nominating Convention of the North District of Indiana, re-nominated by acclamation, Speaker Colfax.

—The Republicans of Greene county, Pa., have nominated Gen. Grant for President in 1866.

Another Female Poisoner.

Mrs. Heggie, lately convicted at Ithaca, New York, of the murder of her two daughters, is described as rather prepossessing in appearance, with a high, full forehead, blue eyes and firm, arched mouth. It appears that on the 15th of June, 1864, Charlotte Heggie and Mary Heggie, two beautiful and highly accomplished daughters of Isaac Heggie, were living at home with their father at Ithaca. Mrs. Heggie was the mother of fourteen children, was a pleasant woman, and of high, nervous temperament, and of late years conceived the delusion that her two daughters were trying to usurp her household. The daughters both died suddenly within a year of each other, and a chemical analysis revealed arsenic in the stomachs of both. Mrs. Heggie was known to have purchased arsenic at three different drug stores during Charlotte's illness. The case was a strong circumstantial one.

—A move is now making in Illinois to found and endow an Illinois Soldiers' College. It is intended to embrace in the sphere of the contemplated institution the orphans of those who fell, as well as the disabled soldiers themselves.

Money, Love and Strategy—A Father's Frailty and Daughter's Cupidity.

From the Cincinnati Gazette.

The American House at Columbus has for ten years past numbered among its boarders a Mr. D., a respectable gentleman, some 60 years of age, whose wife died some ten years ago, and who at present has a daughter about 26 years of age, who is, we learn, engaged to be married.

Since the death of his wife, the old gentleman, at times feeling lonely, has sought the company of a sprightly widow, a Mrs. R., some 40 years of age. The intimacy between the two giving promise of matrimony, the daughter became concerned about to be married herself, and insisted on becoming sole heir to her father's property, some $10,000 in bonds. The old gentleman gave her $10,000, and told her she ought to be satisfied with that amount. The day after the above occurence, Mrs. R—— went on a visit to her relatives in Kentucky. The old gentleman for some time wrote to, and received letters from the widow every day. Finally, however, the letters became less frequent, and at last stopped entirely. The old gentleman consequently became gloomy, and thought he was to be rejected by her whom he had loved so well. The daughter, seeing the condition in which her father was placed, determined to break up the engagement.

Continuing in a gloomy state, the old gentleman was taken by his daughter and some of his friends to the Insane Asylum at [illegible], where the physicians, after an examination, would not receive him. He was then brought to Longview Asylum near this city, but Dr. Langdon, the Superintendent, also declined without a certificate from a physician as to the insanity of the old man. This was obtained from Dayton, and the old gentleman was safely domiciled within the walls of Longview.

In the meantime Mrs. R. returned to Columbus, and was very much surprised at hearing the course which affairs had taken. She tracked Mr. D. to Dayton, and thence to this city, and found him in the asylum.

Mrs. R. engaged a lawyer to look after the matter, and after a consultation, Dr. Langdon gave it as his opinion that Mr. D. was more sick than insane.

He is still within the walls of Longview, and will, we understand, remain there until his health is fully restored, and is attended faithfully by Mrs. R. The daughter, we believe, is in Columbus.

A Sad Affair—Fatal Encounter in Charleston, Mississippi.

The usual quiet of our village was, on Monday last, greatly disturbed by a rencounter between Mr. R. E. Lee, of this county, and Capt. J. T. Smith of this place, which resulted fatally to both parties. A difficulty arose between these gentlemen, growing out of the unimportant gossip of school girls—unimportant because the talk of children, but from the insignificant size of a mole hill, it soon assumed by the change from lip to lip, the proportions of a mountain. Capt. Smith commenced a new session of his school, and was, as formerly, generally patronized by the community. Mr. Lee, under the impression that this general support of Capt. Smith was with a view to indorse that gentleman, and smarting under the idea that the veracity of his child was thereby suffering, which was certainly a very erroneous idea, as was reasonable under such an impression, took steps with a view to her vindication.

Mutual friends interposed and endeavored to adjust the difficulty without compromising the honor of any one, which could have been done, if prudence instead of passion had ruled the hour. Propositions had been made and were being discussed, when incautious and violent language was used by Mr. Lee in regard to Mr. Smith. The words used by Mr. Lee were fierce, bitter and grossly insulting. Capt. Smith was in a room close by and heard the words, and immediately made his appearance, when the firing began. Witnesses do not agree as to who fired first, nor is it material, for neither could, at that stage of the difficulty, wait for the other. In the fight which ensued, Capt. Smith was wounded, from the effects of which he died on Thursday last. Mr. Lee was instantly killed. The particular friends of each were armed and ready to take part, in case any one should show foul play.—Tallahatchie [illegible], June 25th.

COE'S DYSPEPSIA CURE is prepared by the originator of the justly celebrated Coe's Cough Balsam. Mr. Coe has never prepared a medicinal article for public and general use that has not stood the strongest tests, and has always borne the palm of victory over every disease it has been recommended to cure. Will you who are suffering from dyspepsia, indigestion, nausea, sick headache, cholera morbus, dysentery, and general debility of the whole system, try but a single bottle? We will never urge you again if we fail in this case. Our own knowledge of its merits, the united testimony of all who have ever tried it, tens of thousands of our own neighbors, your duty to yourself, and the beneficial results as certain as sunshine, persistently urge you to try just one bottle. If what we say is not correct—if our statements concerning its wonderful virtues are not found to be true—if you do not say that the operation of its medicine is instantaneous and perfectly wonderful—we will renounce our profession as caterers to the public health, and retire from the field, admitting that we are incompetent to compound a medicinal preparation which would be entitled to your confidence.

SEMPER PARATUS.
PRO BO NO PUBLICO
Yet they say 'tis a heinous crime the way business is conducted. Some say it is murdering the trade. Others say it is against his own interests. We don't believe it. Let us see what the true state of affairs is. The truth is this: That there is a new establishment, neatly fitted up, at No. 87 Market street, Pittsburgh, over which W. G. MAHAFFEY presides, and in which boots and shoes are sold at prices so low as to astonish the natives. Hear me while I give you the prices of a few articles, while all other articles are sold correspondingly low: Ladies' Congress Lasting gaiters selling at $1.50; Ladies' Sewed Morocco Boots at $2.00. Men's Congress Lasting Gaiters at $1.50; Children's Slippers at 19c; Children's Morocco Shoes at 50c. A large lot of gent's prime fine calf balmorals and gaiters just received and selling exceedingly low. In addition to this he keeps any article in the boot or shoe line, and manufactures to order Ladies' Congress lasting gaiter morocco boot, ladies' and gentlemen's fancy cloth embroidered slippers. Likewise gent's first class calf boots made to order $1.50 lower than any other first class house in the city. Lasts fit up to fit the feet, which we would advise every man to have of his own. Ladies' and gent's fancy cloth slipper uppers, silk embroidered, for sale. Wherein consists the crime. If in selling low, we plead guilty, and by selling low we expect to preserve our own interests, and make quick sales and many of them. Inviting you to call and see for yourselves we leave the subject with you.
W. G. MAHAFFEY,
jy11 No. 87 Market Street.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

THE MUTUAL
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
Of New York.
ASSETS, OVER
Sixteen Million Dollars.
To meet the choice of such present or future members as may prefer to have the amount insured paid in instalments to their widows or heirs, rather than in one sum, this Company is prepared to insert in its policies a clause agreeing that in lieu of the payment of the policy in one gross sum, an equitable annuity [illegible] Company, may be paid annually or semi-annually for any specified number of years, say from five to twenty-five years.
EXAMPLE.—Suppose a policy of $10,000, with additions amounting to $5,000 more, should become payable by reason of the death of the person insured, the Company, in lieu of the payment of $15,000 in one sum would be able to give, (assuming interest as realized in the past) an annuity for ten years of over $2,000 per annum, or for twenty years an annuity of over $1,300 per annum.
This form of annuity will remove the anxiety which may exist in the minds of some policy-holders lest the future provision they have made for their families should be inadequate or transitory in its duration, either through unsafe investment, unwise expenditure, or other [illegible] incidental to contingent trusts.
It is not only free from the ordinary dangers of investment, but its punctual and full payment is secured by the large and solid cash resources and good faith of this institution, which thus, to a certain extent, becomes the Guardian or Trustee of the survivors. Hence the provision may be considered, humanly speaking, beyond any adverse contingency.
All such deferred payments or annuities will share equitably in the profits or dividends of the Company.
This Company will also issue SURVIVORSHIP ANNUITIES, which provide for survivors during the whole period of life, and DEFERRED ANNUITIES, by which individuals may provide for themselves in advanced age.

Pittsburgh and the Portland Sufferers—Citizens' Meeting—Further Material Aid to be Extended.

Pursuant to call a second meeting of citizens was held at the Mayor's office, yesterday, to perfect arrangements for affording relief to the sufferers by the disastrous conflagration at Portland, Maine, recently. On motion of Thomas Steel, Esq., the Mayor, Hon. W. C. McCarthy, was called to the chair, and reporters of the press, present, requested to act as Secretaries. Col James Patchell, John H. Hare, Esq., Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, and R. E. McGowin, were chosen Vice Presidents.

The particular business before the meeting was the appointment of persons to collect money for the object proposed. Mr. Steel stated there were three propositions for the consideration of the meeting: First, to raise collections in the various churches of the city, the surrounding corporations, and the country generally; Second, the appointment of a Committee of three or five to canvass the business portion of the city; Third, the appointment of two collectors for each ward of the city.

After some discussion, Mr. Steel moved for the adoption of the third proposition, which motion prevailed, and the following collectors were appointed:

First Ward—George Albree, C. H. Love.
Second Ward—Hon. H. A. Weaver, W. N. Ogden.
Third Ward—B. Rafferty, James Herdman.
Fourth Ward—Thos. A. Cain, Henry Hays.
Fifth Ward—J. H. Ralston, Thos. Dickson.
Sixth Ward—William Culp, James Blackman.
Seventh Ward—Col. James Patchell, James Robb.
Eighth Ward—John M. Killen, Sam. Morrow.
Ninth Ward—W. R. Ford, Joseph H. Nobbs.
Tenth Ward—John A. Strain, James Montooth.

The Collectors above appointed, on motion, were requested to call at the Mayor's office this (Friday) evening, to receive their collection books, after which the meeting adjourned.

A Noble Charity.

We wish to mention the Pittsburgh Homoeopathic Dispensary, located at No. 62 Fourth street, where the poor can always find and receive medical and surgical treatment gratuitously. We have been invited to witness several surgical operations at the Dispensary, but have not been able to be in attendance but once, in the case of Margaret Thomas, residing on the corner of Smithfield and Strawberry Alley. The child was operated on for spurious anchylosis of the knee joint, by Drs. Herron and Childs, Surgeons in charge.

Yesterday we learn that another case was brought to the notice of the Surgeons. John Boyles, aged sixty one, fell from the third story of his residence, No. 4 Prospect street, early yesterday morning, receiving a severe contusion on the back of his head, and was badly bruised about the limbs and body. Although injured internally, strange to say he had no bones broken. Dr. Childs, one of the Surgeons of the Dispensary, was called in, but has little hopes of his recovery.

We are glad to see that the humane and philanthropic gentlemen having this institution in charge have not only engaged competent and well skilled Physicians and Surgeons to be in attendance each day, (Sundays excepted,) from 11 a. m. till 1 p. m. but also where the case requires it, they visit the abodes of the poor and afflicted. We say, God speed them in this good work.

We will from time to time notice the progress of the Fourth Street Dispensary.

Alderman Johns' Cases.

Rachel Kenney charged Annie Talbot with unlawfully detaining a ring belonging to affiant. Annie was arrested, but protested her innocence, and that she never saw the ring. Rachel believed and consented that the accused should depart, on paying the cost, which was promptly done.

Nicholas Grist was charged with maintaining a nuisance. Nicholas was discharged on payment of costs, and promising to abate the nuisance within twenty-four hours.

John and Sarah Evans, hailing from the vicinity of Soho, were charged by a venerable old lady with malicious mischief. Sarah would light fires in the yard, contiguous to the affiant's residence, hence the suit. The defendants promised to "move," consequently deponent withdrew the prosecution on condition that they would pay the costs.

Elizabeth Clarke complained that William Richards and James Rourke had acted in a very rude and threatening manner towards the complainant, and prayed for the interposition of the court. A warrant was issued and the accused brought up. A "cloud of witnesses" were examined and finally the defendants were allowed to depart, after a solemn pledge not to insult their neighbors nor the dignity of the Commonwealth in the future.

Has to Come Down.

When the lofty tower of St. Paul's Cathedral was erected, several scientific architects expressed the belief that the erection was a useless expenditure of money, and that it would eventually either fall down upon its own account, or be removed as a matter of prudence. They were right. The lofty tower must come down immediately, and the work of demolition will soon commence. The congregation of St. Paul's may take the matter good humoredly, but it strikes us very forcibly that there is blame to be attached to the architect for exercising no more judgment and prudence. The needless expenditure of thousands of dollars in its construction is a matter resting entirely with the church folks, but erecting a tower that jeopardized the lives of the people should entitle the architect to censure from the community. We believe that it is contemplated to erect a dome in its place, and to finish the two towers in front of the church. Right Rev. Bishop Domenec should see to it that the new towers be erected in such a manner as not to require being razed to the ground within a few years.

The Passenger Railway Case—The Judgment of the Alderman Reversed.

It will be recollected that some time since, John Orr, a teamster, was fined five dollars (the penalty prescribed by Act of Assembly,) for willfully and maliciously obstructing, with his coal wagon, the track of the Passenger Railway on Federal street, Allegheny. The case came up in the Common Pleas, on Wednesday, in the shape of a certiorari, some dozen or more exceptions having been taken to the proceedings before Alderman Donaldson. The main exceptions were as to the form of proceeding. The case was entertained by the Alderman as an action of debt, or civil process, and counsel, R. S. Morrison, Esq., contended that an information should have been made and warrant issued, as in any criminal proceeding. The Court sustained this exception, and reversed the judgment of the Alderman. Judge Stowe will write an opinion in the case.

Row Boat Race on the Monongahela.—A match has been arranged to take place over the Monongahela course, on Saturday, the 27th inst., between the "Friendship" of Pittsburgh, and the "New York," of Manchester, four oared boats, for a prize of eight hundred dollars, the race to be rowed from the Monongahela bridge to Cork's Run and return. The "Friendship" crew will consist of William Jackson, Fred. Dierst, Fred Wolf and Dan. Wolf; that of the "New York," Henry Coltart, David Lightbill, Charles Dooney and George Spear. The final stakeholder is Alexander Murray.

Held to Bail.—William Wallace—not the hero of Scotia, but said to be an humble descendant of the illustrious warrior—was before Alderman Johns, yesterday, charged with assault and battery, on oath of Jeremiah Donlon. William admitted having made an assault on Donlon, but alleged in palliation for his offence that the latter had used such language to him as no high-minded gentleman could answer save by blows. The magistrate decided the defense impotent, and made William give bail for his appearance at Court.

General Jail Delivery.—On Monday night last, Pat Manly, D. Klingensmith, Albert Christy, Pat McChall, John Hagerty, George Haines and Hamilton Reed, all confined in the jail of Armstrong county, for various crimes, became satisfied with their quarters, and concluded to take French leave. They made their escape by prying apart the bars inserted in the large window, in the hall, in the second story, and let themselves down into the yard.

Wampum Furnace for Sale.—As will be seen by the advertisement of S. M. Kier, Esq., receiver for the owners of the "Wampum Furnace," a positive sale of the entire premises will be made on Wednesday, the First day of August. This sale embraces one of the best and most conveniently arranged furnaces in the country, and besides a large quantity of valuable mineral lands. Capitalists will do well to go and see it, or call on Mr. Kier.

The County Agricultural Society held a special meeting on Wednesday, Moses Chess in the chair. Fair committees, on building and printing, reported progress, and the latter were empowered to correct and finally decide on the premium list. It was resolved to invite Col. Harris, editor of the Ohio Farmer, to deliver a lecture at the time of holding the next county fair.

A Warning.—A little son of Mr. David Sample, who resides near West Middlesex, Mercer county, was stung by a locust on the wrist, last week, and died from the effects. The little sufferer lived only two days after he was stung. At the time he was stung he was playing in the yard, and had taken up the locust in his hand. If they are thus poisonous, people should be careful how they handle them.

Good News.—The wheat market in Chicago was panic stricken yesterday, owing to the breaking of the "corner" on regular No. 1 Spring, which rapidly declined twenty-seven and twenty-eight cents per bushel on yesterday's closing figures. Other grades declined twelve and fifteen cents. The prospect of large arrivals of the new crop in a few days has had a tendency to cause the decline.

Death of a Printer.—R. H. Woodward, a printer, and a native of Pennsylvania, died in Sacramento, California, on the 22d of May last. Mr. Woodward was a son of the late Hon. Robert Woodward, of Armstrong county. The deceased went to California from Blairsville, Indiana county, where his wife and daughter now reside. He was for some three years connected with the Blairsville Record.

EARLY TELEGRAMS.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Resignation of Postmaster General Dennison—Secretary Harlan Soon to Resign—Attorney General Speed also to Resign—Alexandria and Fredericksburg Railroad—The Equalization of Bounties—Important Order from Gen. Grant.

NEW YORK, July 12.—The Tribune's Washington special says: Positively Postmaster General Dennison resigned the place he holds in the Cabinet. His successor is not named.

There are reasons for supposing that Secretary Harlan will soon follow his example.

The World's special says Attorney General Speed will also resign.

The Alexandria and Fredericksburg Railroad is to be commenced at once, and be completed in twelve months. The officers are: General McCallum, President; R. A. Latham, Vice President; R. Turner, Treasurer; Reuben Johnson, Secretary.

At the caucus of the Union members tonight, Mr. Garfield announced that three other members of the cabinet would follow Mr. Dennison in resigning their places.

The bill for the equalization of bounties will probably be called up in the Senate. The outside pressure is heavy and in its favor.

Mr. Boutwell is busily engaged writing the report of the Judiciary Committee on the Jeff Davis conspiracy implication, and will report in a few days.

The veto of the Freedmen's Bureau bill is undoubtedly prepared, and the bill will be returned to the House, whence it originated, with objections, before the expiration of the ten days allowed the President.

General Grant has issued the following important order: Headquarters of the Army, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, July 1st, 1866.—General Order No. 44.—The Department, District and Post Commanders in States lately in rebellion are hereby ordered and directed to arrest all persons who have been or may hereafter be charged with the commission of crimes and offenses against officers, agents, citizens and inhabitants of the United States, irrespective of color, in cases where the civil authorities have failed, neglected, or are unable to arrest and bring such parties to trial, and to detain them in military confinement until such time as a proper judicial tribunal may be ready and willing to try them. A strict and prompt enforcement of this order is required.

By command of LIEUT. GEN. GRANT.
E. D. TOWNSEND, Asst. Adjt. General.

FROM EUROPE.

Arrival of the Steamer Persia—Contradictory War News—Defeat of the Austrian Troops—Great Rejoicing at Berlin—Surrender of the Hanoverian Army—Whole Federal Army on the Move—Sailing of the Great Eastern.

NEW YORK, July 12.—The steamer Persia, from Liverpool on the 29th, via Queenstown July 1st, arrived this morning. The war news is very contradictory, both the Austrians and Prussians claiming a victory on the same battlefield.

Berlin dispatches of the 29th say the Austrians were defeated on the 27th and 28th, near Nachad, by the first army corps, and on the 28th at Trautinau, by the corps of Life Guards, and at Machingrants, by Prince Frederick Charles.

At Trautinau the Austrians are said to have lost from 3,000 to 4,000 in killed and wounded, and the Prussians about 1,000. At Machingrants the Austrian losses are stated at 2,000, and the Prussians are said to have captured about 8,000 prisoners, numerous trophies, guns, &c.

There was great rejoicing at Berlin. The inhabitants presented an address to and serenaded the King. The Crown Prince of Prussia reports that in his engagement he had 22 battalions opposed to 28 battalions of Austrians. The Hanoverian army on the 29th surrendered at discretion to the Prussians. The officers retained their side arms. The men were dismissed to their homes.

The whole federal army at and near Frankfort was on the march and a battle anticipated.

The Italians have changed their plan of operations. There have been no further collisions in Italy. Garibaldi was at Lake Idro.

The English Parliament had adjourned till July 5th, at the request of Earl Derby, who is forming a Cabinet. He sought to obtain the support of the leading Whigs and Liberals, who had acted against Russell's government, but failed, and a conservative ministry is expected.

Threatening demonstrations had taken place in London among the lower orders, on the reform question.

The Great Eastern would sail from Sheerness on the 20th.

It is reported that France will not long remain quiet. An active intervention is reported as already agreed upon.

Interesting From Mexico.

NEW YORK, July 12.—The Herald's Mexican correspondent says: The forces of Mejia reached Vera Cruz on the 1st of July, in a bad condition for supplies and clothing.

The Liberal troops which had occupied Matamoras, behaved handsomely, and Caravajal and the several partizans of Ortega and Juarez had for the time forgotten their differences, and united against the common foe.

The movement of Marshal Bazaine into San Louis Potosi had been made in order to succor the troops which were surrounded there by the Liberals, and not for offensive operations, as had been supposed at Tampico.

The Liberals had prevented the entry of provisions into the besieged city. Only river water was available for drinking purposes, and provisions of all kinds were extremely high.

The Imperial expedition for the recovery of Chihuahua had been abandoned, owing to obstacles in the way of its success.

Maximilian had ordered a sum of $500,000 as one half the dividend on the English debt, to be sent to England by the steamer on the first of May. To raise the same, the Custom House at Vera Cruz had to discount the paper of the merchants which it held, at ruinous rates.

Indian Council at Fort Laramie—Indians Refuse to Make Peace.

NEW YORK, July 12.—The Tribune's special from Leavenworth, Kansas, says: The Indian Council at Fort Laramie has broken up. It was a complete farce, the Indians refusing to make peace except upon their own terms, the withdrawal of all troops and travel from their hunting grounds, north of the Platte. The Council has been an enormous expense to the Government, and with no beneficial result.

Crops are full, and business very brisk.

Emigrant Hospital Opened—Fire in New York.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

THURSDAY, July 12, 1866.

The New York stock quotations to-day, as received by Mr. P. R. Mertz, were as follows: Gold, 149⅝; 1881's, 109⅝; 5-20's, (old) 107; 5-20's, (new) 105¼; 10-40's, 98⅝; 7-30's, (large) 103; 7-30's (small) 103½; Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad, 84¼; Pittsburgh & Fort Wayne, 97½; Erie, 74½; Western Union Telegraph, 52.

Government bonds continue to be the main centre of attraction. As will be seen by the above quotations, they have still further advanced, and many, who hesitated about buying a few weeks since when they could have been bought at par or a fraction above, are now paying a very handsome premium. Bank s[illegible] insurance stocks, dull—oil s[illegible]

[illegible] and [illegible] last steamer are regarded as highly favorable. The decline in the premium on gold in the face of the lower quotations for American bonds on the 27th, ult, has made the "bulls" at New York less confident than they were. What was looked for as a consequence of the American rise in the premium on gold to 55, was a fall in 5-20s to at least 69, whereas they come reported at 69⅝, which is 4 per cent better than was anticipated. It is now thought by many well advised persons that the news to be received in the next few weeks for our bonds will be of a continuous encouraging character; while the demand will, no doubt, more than absorb all the bonds that can be readily obtainable. The London letters report quite a buoyant spirit in financial circles, and all that was wanting to stimulate the general hopeful feeling further was reduction in the bank rate of interest, which was looked for confidently on Thursday. The eagles sent out from this side on the 17th ult, had been all taken for the continent, and would not, therefore, appear in the next statement of the British Bank. There had been, however, arrivals from Australia, which would go into bank, after refining. It was almost universally conceded that the effects of the panic were surely passing away.

—We make the following extract from the money article in the Philadelphia Ledger, of Wednesday:

The fluctuations in the prices of our bonds abroad, it has been frequently shown, have little effect on home prices, and many are of opinion that the national credit would be greatly benefited if they were all held in the United States. Indeed, the amount now held in Europe is believed to be less than some months ago; not that they have been sent home for realization, but have come back with the German immigration, in comparatively small amounts, and are held for investment or are realized on, as the necessities of holders may require. An intelligent gentleman, favorably situated to know the movements of our 5-20 loans, informs us that the amount coming back in this way is much larger than any one unacquainted with the facts would believe, and that there is good reason for the conclusion that the amount now held abroad does not exceed three hundred millions of dollars, instead of four to five hundred millions, as was some time since estimated. The prosperous condition of the United States in all parts shows that the public debt is not the onerous load at one time supposed it would be, but a thing entirely within the control of our own abundant resources.

—The New York Tribune, of the 11th, says:

It is understood that the Treasury Department is delivering quite large amounts of new Five Twenties, which have been paid for by the surrender of compound notes and Seven Thirties. Instead of making these exchanges secretly, the Treasury should open the exchange of short currency debt for long gold-bearing bonds at a price to all holders. The payment of one year certificates will in a few days set free from the Treasury a large amount of currency, which, judging from the present popularity of gold-bearing bonds, will find its way into them. After Congress adjourns it is probable that the Treasury Department will take steps to get its temporary loans out of the way, and manage its affairs so as to kill off speculation in gold, stocks or commodities, and return the gamblers to some industrial pursuit. In a few weeks there will be a large demand for currency to move the crops, which will be supplied from the Atlantic cities, at the expense of those who are now speculating upon cheap money. The movements of the Treasury, the retirement of currency by State Banks, and the demand for money to move the crops will at an early day create an active demand for capital, at full rates, in New York—a fact which parties making engagements for the future will do well to remember.

—The ten per cent tax on the circulation of State Banks will go into effect in three weeks, and because a greater inquiry from the country for currency; but so great are the disbursements from the Treasury, and so widespread is the plethora of national bank notes that no interruption of the ease in money is anticipated from this cause. It is reported that when Mr. McCulloch has paid off the thirty millions of certificates of indebtedness which all cease to bear interest next Monday, he will begin to pay off the temporary loan.

New York Money and Stock Market.

NEW YORK, July 12, 1866.

The gold market was stronger towards the close and rose to 152@152⅛. A revival of gold shipments is looked for in some quarters, which, in connection with the advance in exchange, has a tendency to enhance premium. Government securities were firm this afternoon at the following quotations: Coupons, 1881, 109¼@109½; 5-20 coupons, 1865, 101¼@101½. The stock market was rather quiet towards the close of the day, and the market was generally lower at the last board. The pause in Erie rather checks the upward movement in prices. The following were the closing prices at 4:35 p. m.: Ohio Certificates, 27@27½; Canton, 50@53; Cumberland Coal Company, 46@46¼; Quicksilver Mining Company, 51@52; Michigan Central, 10[illegible]; Michigan Southern, 81@82; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, 84½@84¾; Rock Island, 5[illegible]; Northwestern, 31[illegible]; Northwestern preferred, 62¾@62⅞. Petroleum stocks—Brevoort, 125; Benne Run oil, 100; do, 115; Bennehoff Run petroleum, 300; First National of New York and Allegheny, 175; Pit Hole Creek, 240; United States, 850; do, 850; do, 800.

Mining stocks—Quartz Hill, 400; Downieville, 65; do, 69; Gunnell Gold, 111; do, 110; do, 110; do, 112; Halmin, 35; do, 36; New York Gold, 108; do, 110. Express stocks—Adams, 118½.

The Post's money article says the tendency rate of gold is about the same as yesterday. The loan market is easy and more active. Commercial paper unchanged. Stocks irregular. Governments strong. Railroad shares unsettled, Erie being rather lower. Latest quotations 71.

Chicago Cattle Market.

CHICAGO, July 11.—The fresh receipts of Beef Cattle to-day at the Union Stock Yards are liberal. Entered sales 1016 head at prices ranging from $3@5,35 for common cows, 1@6,50 for stock steers and butchers' stock, and from $7@7,87½ for good to choice beeves. The market is moderately active, and a fair business has been transacted at a further reduction of from 10@15c per 100 lbs on yesterday's closing prices. Buyers are acting cautiously in their purchases at the above reduction, which sellers had to concede in order to effect sales. The large supplies received to-day, and the unfavorable advices from the east render business quiet at the close, with from two to three thousand head of cattle in the pens unsold.

Oswego Market.

OSWEGO, July 12.—Flour dull and unchanged; sales 800 bbls. at $10,75 for No. 1 spring; $12,25@12,50 for red winter, and $13,25 for double extra. PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
THURSDAY, July 12, 1866.

The produce markets continue quiet and rather dull, and, with a demand restricted almost entirely to supplying the immediate wants of the home trade, we have but very few round lot operations to record.

ASHES—Pearls firm, with small sales at 15½. Potash firm and higher, being quoted at 8½. But very little inquiry for Soda Ash, and prices are nominal.

GRAIN—Wheat is dull, with a drooping tendency, though, as yet, unchanged. Oats quiet and unchanged. Chicago may be quoted at 48@50, and prime white at 54@55, in elevator. Corn is dull; small sales from store at 80 to 85. No demand for Rye or Barley. Buckwheat is dull and nominal at $1,75@2.

PROVISIONS—Bacon continues firm and moderately active, while prices have undergone no quotable change. Sales at 17 to 17½ for Shoulders; 19½@20 for Ribbed Sides; and 25½ to 26 for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is dull but unchanged at 22½@23. Small sales of Dried Beef at 27½@28. Mess Pork is quoted at $33,50, and dull.

FLOUR—Is firm with a continued fair local demand and prices are well maintained, but unchanged. Sales of Spring Wheat Family at $10,50 to $11,50; Winter Wheat at $12,50@13, and fancy brands at $14 to $16. Rye Flour is selling at $6,75.

POTATOES—New Potatoes appeared to be a perfect drug to-day, and with a supply largely in excess of the demand, prices have still further declined, and we now quote at $3 to $3,50 per bbl, as to quality.

HAY—Is not coming in so freely, and the market is firm and prices a shade higher. Sales at scales to-day at $22 to $25 per ton, as to quality.

BUTTER—Is quiet and unchanged; small sales of packed at 20 to 22.

EGGS—Continue dull but unchanged at 17@18 for fresh packed.

CHEESE—Sales of Western Reserve at 15@16, Hamburg at 17@18, and Goshen at 20@21.

FLAXSEED—Is in demand at $3.

CUCUMBERS—Sales at $3,50 to $4,00 per bbl.

SORGHUM—Is dull at 50 to 55.

OIL—No. 1 Lard is quoted at $1,80@1,82.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
THURSDAY, July 12, 1866.

CRUDE—There is still some little inquiry for Crude, both for present and future delivery, but the market continues dull and heavy, notwithstanding, and while prices are unchanged, the tendency is downward. Barrelled oil may be quoted at 11¾ to 12, on the spot; bulk at 12¼ to 12½, and 12¾ for August and September. We are cognizant of an offer to sell 5000 bbls for November at 13¾, but up to this writing, no buyer could be found. Sale 150 bbls at 12; 150 do at 12¼; and 1000 bbls, in bulk, for September delivery, seller's option, at 12¾. A gentleman just from Oil City reports the oil business excessively dull there and drooping. He quotes Crude at $3 to $3,10 on the Creek, $3,50 at the mouth.

REFINED—The transactions in bonded oil were unusually large to-day, and while this would seem to indicate a more active market, prices are still declining. We can report sales of 500 bbls for July delivery in Philadelphia, seller's option, at 37; 500 do do (standard white) at 37½; 1500 for August, 15th to 30th, buyer's option, at 38½; 500 for all October at 41; 250 for November, and 250 for December, buyer's option, at 44, and 1000 for the last half of October, buyer's option, at 37c, free on board cars here. An attempt was made to duplicate the most of the above sales, but without success, showing pretty conclusively that the bottom has not yet been reached. There was no movement in Free Oil.

ARRIVALS—The arrivals of oil by the Allegheny River since our last report, were as follows:

CENTRAL LIVE-STOCK MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
THURSDAY, July 12, 1866.

CATTLE—The receipts of cattle this week have been lighter than for some weeks past, but the rather unfavorable character of the eastern advices was an offset against the falling off in the arrivals, and the market ruled dull, though as compared with last week, prices have undergone little or no change. There was a very good attendance of buyers during yesterday and to-day, and all the cattle offered were taken at a range of from 6,15 to 9 cents, gross, and these may be regarded as the extremes of the market. Lafferty & Co. sold a small drove of common mixed cattle, consisting of cows, bulls and steers, at 6,15 while, on the other hands, Messrs. Moss & Johnston sold a drove of extra Ohio steers at 9; and Martin & Co. obtained 8,85 for a very fine drove of western steers. Common and medium grades of cattle were not as brisk sale as last week, and perhaps a shade lower, while prime to extra cattle brought very full prices.

SHEEP—The market for sheep, owing to a material falling off in the arrivals, was somewhat firmer than last week, but prices have undergone little or no change—possibly prime fat mutton sheep brought a fraction more. We give 4½ to 5½, gross, as the extremes of market, remarking at the same time that there were but very few sales at the outside quotation. Stock Sheep may be quoted at $2,50 to $3 per head. McCall sold Lindsay a drove of 33 head of Lambs, averaging 41 lbs, at 7½.

HOGS—The Hog market is firmer, and, in consequence of very light arrivals, prime heavy averages have advanced from ¼ to ½ a cent per pound. As will be seen by reference to the sales annexed, the transactions were very limited, and prices ranged from 9,25 to 11 cents, according to quality and condition. Lafferty & Co. sold a bunch of very fine Hogs at the last named price, 11 cts.

New York Iron Market.

NEW YORK, July 11.—The stock of American pig remains very limited, and any increased demand would be likely to increase the price, makers holding at $48 for No. 1 X with one or two exceptions, who would sell at $46; they decline now to name a price for September. Scotch pig is held very firmly at $55 Gartsherrie, $50 Coltness, $48 for Glengarnock, and $47 for Eglinton, all from yard. The last steamer brings news of 40 blast-furnaces being blown out, and more expected, the serious difference between the makers and miners and colliers having led to an extended strike for higher wages, which the masters have combined to resist. The Glasgow market has advanced 5s sterling per ton. The reduction in the make of pig iron in Scotland by the action of the makers is 32,000 tons per month, or nearly 400,000 tons per year. There is believed to be a prospect of much higher prices here, should the Bank of England reduce the rate of interest as expected. The actual sales since our last are 500 tons Glengarnock Scotch pig, ex ship and to arrive at $47; 100 do Coltness, on private terms; 100 do No. 1 American, $48; 200 do No. 2; $45; 50 do No. 2 scrap, $35; a small lot California wrought scrap, $52,50; 250 do American do, to arrive, and 500 do forge, at the furnace on the Lehigh, on terms not made public. From store, there is no change in bar, &c., the market being dull at our quotations.—Com. List.

Accounts from Crops Harvested in Illinois and Missouri.

Accounts are beginning to reach us from various parts of the State, and from Illinois, of the yield and quality of the wheat, rye, oats and barley already cut. The Grayville Independent, printed in Illinois, says that the fields of wheat, that a few weeks ago did not appear worth cutting, are turning out an average crop. The Press, printed in Wayne County, Illinois, says the wheat harvest is about over, and a larger yield than was expected. Larger and better grain was never raised in the country.—[Missouri Republican.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede steadily at this point with two feet eight inches in the channel by the pier marks last evening. The weather was excessively hot in the sun yesterday, though a pretty stiff breeze rendered it comfortable in the shade.

There has not been a single arrival from below since our last report. The Arabian and Kate Putnam are both over due, and may possibly be found in port this morning. The Leni Leoti from Parkersburg, was due last night, and will leave again to-day at noon.

The Columbia left for St. Louis yesterday forenoon with a fair trip, having all the freight she could take out on the water.

The Elector, Capt. Phillips, and the Gallatin Capt. Carlisle, are the regular packets for Brownsville this evening, leaving promptly at 5 o'clock.

The R. C. Gray has arrived, and will probably load there for Pittsburgh. The Kate Robinson and Leonidas have laid up at Cincinnati.

The New State, in command Harlan, is announced to leave for Wheeling to-day at noon. She is a neat and staunch little steamer, and will be able to go through with dispatch.

The Louisville Democrat, of Tuesday, gives the following details of the steamboat engineers convention, now being held in that city:

A Convention of Western and Southern Engineers met at 9 o'clock yesterday morning in the Law School Building, in Court place. The Convention was called to order, and I. H. Bettus, of St. Louis, elected Chairman; and C. H. Christopher, of Cincinnati, Secretary. Delegates from the following local associations were present: St. Louis, Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Louisville, Evansville, Dubuque, Wheeling, Memphis and New Albany. The following officers of the Association were elected: President, I. H. Bettus, St. Louis; Vice President, Daniel Graham, Pittsburgh; Secretary, C. H. Christopher, Cincinnati; Treasurer, D. S. Start, Evansville. On motion, a committee was appointed to draft resolutions declaring the objects of the Convention. The Committee made the following report:

"WHEREAS, In view of the many recent and startling disasters by explosion of steamers on our Western and Southern rivers, it becomes an urgent and imperative necessity on the part of the engineering fraternity, to whose skill and care, life and property are intrusted, to institute a rigid inquiry into the causes of these calamities, the frequency of which produce so much mourning and anguish all over the land, and

"WHEREAS, To form a more perfect union, to insure harmony, and elevate ourselves to a proper understanding of the many high and responsible duties of our calling, as well as to provide each other against the many trials and calamities incident to our profession, we do hereby agree to enter into an organization to be known and styled as the Grand Union Association of the Western and Southern Engineers, and agree to be governed by the following constitution, by-law, and rules of order."

It was resolved that the following subjects be discussed: 1. To institute inquiry into the character, thickness and quality of iron now being used in the construction of river steamers. 2. To investigate the different forms and methods used in the construction of boilers, their comparative strength and relation to each other, when submitted to a high temperature, caused by an increased number of flues, or otherwise. 3. If the numerous explosions that have so recently occurred upon our Western and Southern rivers are the result of bad construction, bad inspected, or to be placed to the ignorance or careless contempt of laws on the part of the engineer in charge. These are only a few of the many features that will be presented for the consideration of the Convention. The Convention then adjourned until 8 o'clock this morning.

The steamer Miner, owned by the Northwest Fur company, of Chicago and New York, arrived at St. Louis from the Upper Missouri, with a cargo of 516 packs ropes, furs and peltries, valued at $30,000. The cargo goes to New York by rail. The Miner goes again this year, either to Musk River or Fort Benton.

THE WILL S. HAYS SOLD.—Capt. Ford, of New Albany, has sold this new stern wheel steamer to parties in St. Louis for the sum of $30,000.

The Ancher and Hart Company, at New Albany, have dissolved and made division of their boats. Capt. Ed. Hart takes the new boat building at that port, and nearly completed, the Liberty No. 2 and the Commercial. Capt. Arener takes the St. Patrick, Laura Fenton, and another stern-wheeler and several barges.

It would seem that by some strange oversight the new locks to the Louisville and Portland Canal are sufficient for the demands of our inland commerce. The Louisville Courier, in referring to this matter, says:

It now appears that the new locks, though four hundred feet in length, are only eighty feet in width, which is certainly much less than they ought to be as we have several boats in commission that are wider than the new locks, and there are other boats building, or under contract, which will also be wider than the new locks. This is an unfortunate dilemma for which there appears no remedy, as nearly one million of dollars have been required to plan and construct the present work, which has been stopped for funds with the completion of only the first lock. The Eclipse was the largest on the river, or rather the longest, being three hundred and sixty-five feet in length, but her width was less than that of a good many other boats, even in her day. She was a sort of experiment, and all practical minds concluded that she was too long and not wide enough. Since her day no boats have been built of the length of the Eclipse, but nearly all the first-class boats are wider.

The largest boat on the river is the Ruth; her extreme length is 312 feet, and her width is 86 feet. The Leviathan, built for the St. Louis trade, was nearly as large as the Ruth, with an extreme width, we believe of 82 feet. The Robt. E. Lee, now building at New Albany, for Capt. Cannon, is to be 300 feet in length, with an extreme width of 87 feet. Capt. Donaldson, at Pittsburgh, has a boat on the stocks which is said to be of larger dimensions than either of the above named boats, and we know of others under contract that are of equally huge proportions. The locks undoubtedly long enough, but unfortunately they are not wide enough for all the requirements of our vast internal marine. They will however, accommodate at least nine-tenths of the river craft now afloat, and we hope they will soon be completed.

THE NEW

Spring and Summer Medicine.

FLUID EXTRACT

SARSAPARILLA,

COMBINED WITH

Iodide of Lime,

PREPARED FOR

G. W. PETTES, BOSTON,

BY

James R. Nichols & Co.,

MANUFACTURING CHEMISTS,

MANUFACTURERS OF THE

ELIXIR PERUVIAN BARK

WITH

Protoxide of Iron,

Which has become so favorably known as a

Tonic and Restorative,

By Physicians and Invalids in all parts of the country.

The new preparation, "SARSAPARILLA IN COMBINATION WITH IODIDE OF LIME," presents one of the most prompt alterative agents in a form capable of exerting full action upon the system, and this in minute and pleasant doses. It is conceded that the alterative, resolvent, or tonic effects of Iodine, are exerted most decidedly when associated with other alteratives, in combination; and the Sarsaparilla seems to fulfil perfectly all the favorable requisitions.

The first effect usually observed when "SARSAPARILLA WITH IODIDE OF LIME" is taken, is an increase of appetite, showing that it has tonic properties of a marked character. Its alterative effects are manifest in its ready combination with the blood and tissues. Pale, scrofulous women and children improve rapidly under its use, and the vital functions assume a healthy condition.

It is admirably adapted to a large number of chronic or acute affections peculiar to children. It is suited to them, both by the mildness and efficiency of Medicinal effect and the pleasant, attractive form of the remedy. It may be given for a long period where constitutional influences are desired, and no repugnance, or disinclination to take the syrup, encountered. In White-Swellings, Hip-Joint Disease, and Distortions of the Spine, it should be given persistently, in moderate doses, until relief is obtained.

The accumulation of morbid matters in the system seems to become manifest and very troublesome. Lassitude, Headache, Boils, Costiveness, Loss of Appetite, Pains in the Joints, Indigestion, etc., are very common. Nothing ever devised is better adapted to exterminate or drive off these affections than this new combination of SARSAPARILLA WITH IODIDE OF LIME.

No preparation like it, or which approximates to it as an

has ever before been placed within the reach of invalids. Indeed, it is an entirely NEW and SCIENTIFIC combination, in no respect resembling anything hitherto employed.

The opinion of medical men concerning it, the description of its chemical character, therapeutic value, manner of use, etc., are given in a circular, which can be had at the store of any and all first-class Druggists.

A Cure for Intemperance.

DR. S. CUTTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS,

The greatest Nervine ever discovered. The addition, within the last ten years, of Dr. Cutter's Nervine Discovery of the English Bitters, makes it a perfect antidote to Intemperance. Previous to his discovery of the Nervine, this medicine was before the English public, celebrated as a Tonic and Alterative, in diseases of the Stomach and of the Bowels, and diseases arising from impurities of the blood. As a nervine it is always the choice of the Stomach, in all persons addicted to the use of stimulants and narcotics, such as alcohol and malt liquors, opium, morphia, arsenic, tobacco, &c., as it removes the morbid appetite, or craving of the stomach for stimulant. In Head che, Neuralgia, and all nervous diseases, it has no equal as a Nervine.

Ten years use of the improved English Bitters in St. Bartholomew's Hospital, St. Mary's Hospital, Newgate and other prisons, have established its reputation as a cure for intemperance, and gained for it the approval of the attending surgeons in all the hospitals and prisons throughout Great Britain, and is prescribed now by many physicians in private practice, for persons addicted to the use of stimulants and sedatives. In Paralysis, St. Vitus Dance, Epileptic Fits, Nervous Twitchings, and all Nervous diseases, it has no equal. Wholesale and retail Agent,

A. TORRENCE.

CHOLERA

DISARMED!!!

The Chief Cause of Pestilence Destroyed!

DR. E. COURTARET'S DISINFECTING FLUIDS, secured by Letters Patent in the United States and France. Prepared solely by the New York Disinfecting Company, at their Laboratory, Nos. 298, 300 and 302 Henry Street, N. Y. Office, 32 Cedar Street.

This Company organized on a permanent basis, with Dr. Courtaret, the celebrated French Chemist, in charge of its Laboratory, is prepared to furnish its DISINFECTING FLUIDS for sick rooms, nurseries, urinals, water closets, privies, cesspools, sewers, gutters, ships, railroads, hospitals, prisons, and public institutions of all kinds, slaughter-houses, offal and fat-boiling establishments; all kinds of manures (immensely increasing the value of the latter to every farmer), and wherever poisonous and offensive gases exist. These agents are deodorizers, antiseptics, antiputrescents, and disinfectants in the scientific meaning of the words. They remove noxious gasses and odors by chemical principles—leaving in their places healthful air; they are DESTROYERS, and not merely absorbents of poisonous gases—not injurious to utensils in which they are used. The attention of medical and scientific men is directed to these disinfectants. Attached are testimonials in favor of this great discovery, which, with hundreds of others can be seen at the Company's office.

DELAVAN HOUSE, ALBANY, March 30, 1866.
To the President of the New York Disinfecting Co.

Dear Sir: It is all it is represented to be. We have made many trials of disinfectants, but now consider that we have found an article which surpasses all others as a remedy against all bad odors.
T. ROESSEL & CO.

NEW YORK, April 9, 1866.
To the President of the New York Disinfecting Co.:

Dear Sir: We pronounce it, without exception, to be the best we have ever known. Its effect upon every matter is complete and instantaneous.
C. A. STETSON, Astor House.

N. B.—These Disinfectants are used by the scavengers, under the direction of the Sanitary Police of the Metropolitan Health Department, N. Y.
